THE PENNSYLVANIA SYSTEM OF ASSESSMENT.

There is no fact more generally conceded by all who have taken the trouble to examine the subject, than this—that our entire system of making assessments for taxation is arbitrary, unjust and oppressive. Whatever may have been originally intended by the laws regulating this matter, it is certain that their practical operations are of the most injurious and detrimental character. The great object to be attained is to so regulate the system of assessment that each and every citizen shall be compelled to bear an equal proportion of the burden necessary for the support of the municipal and State governments, and no more. In other words, that each citizen shall be taxed according to his means, whether those means consist in real, personal or mixed property, and that no person shall have any advantage over another in any particular. We have frequently had occasion to discuss this subject in our columns, and recur to it because we regard it as one of great importance, especially to the citizens of Allegheny county. We are in favor of a thorough and radical change in the system of assessment throughout the entire State, and hope to see a reform accomplished at a very early day. At the last session of the Legislature a commission was appointed to examine the subject and obtain such facts and statistics as might be necessary and useful in assisting the Legislature in arriving at a proper conclusion. We are not advised as to what the members of that commission have done, or intend doing, but we may venture to suggest that if they wish to obtain facts in regard to the inefficiency, injustice, and we might say rottenness of the present system, they can obtain them in abundance in Allegheny county. Our very efficient county Controller, Mr. LAMBERT, could doubtless furnish the Commission with much valuable information on this head, and give them many excellent suggestions as to what is really needed in the premises. It is patent to every property owner that the present mode of making assessments is just about as loose as it could well be. The Assessors are being constantly changed, and the office, which is a most important one, is generally filled by a very indifferent class of men—good enough in their places, perhaps, but many of them entirely unfit for an intelligent discharge of their official duties. Just here we might cite innumerable instances, by way of illustration, but one only will suffice: A gentlemen owning a fine residence is assessed at $1,800, while the iron fence which inclosed his premises cost him $2,500! Now this was merely a nominal assessment. We do not pretend to know the value of the premises alluded to, but eighteen thousand would doubtless come much nearer the mark than eighteen hundred. The injustice of the system is thus made palpable. One man is assessed ten per cent. of the actual value, another twenty, another thirty, and so on, but all far below the actual value. Take a township adjoining some of our boroughs, and property in the township may be assessed at one-half or one-third the value per acre of that in the borough, although a forty foot street only divides the ground. Under such an arbitrary system, the burden of taxation falls very unequally upon the tax-payers. When we come to look at the assessment of personal property, occupation, etc., the inefficiency of the law is still more apparent. The personal valuation in Allegheny county is merely nominal. A man may have a hundred thousand dollars invested in mortgages and not pay a cent in the way of taxes. Occasionally, when a conscientious man makes a true return, or when the assessor happens to learn accidentally of the possession of large personal property and returns it, it is actually regarded as a hardship to exact the tax, because, in common parlance, "nobody else pays personal tax!" The Commissioners have power to reduce the assessment, and can exonerate from the payment of the tax entirely, and it is not surprising that they should exercise this power on the very principle that it would be unjust to make a few men pay where the great mass go scot free. But the assessors are to blame for only a part, and it may be a small part of the evils which inhere in the system. The great fault is with the law. It might have answered the purpose when framed, but experience has long since demonstrated its utter inadequacy to the present wants of society. Pennsylvania is half a century behind many of her sister States in this matter, and the sooner a change is effected the better. The Massachusetts system is preferable to that of Ohio. The principal difference between the two consists in this—in Massachusetts the owner is required to fix the value, and swear to its correctness on the return of the blank which is furnished him for that purpose, while in Ohio the Assessor values the property, subject to revision. The former mentioned plan resembles that adopted by the Government, and is perhaps the best that can be devised. If perjury is resorted to, the party has a serious risk to run, as his return can be seen by his neighbors, who can form a fair estimate of its correctness. Such a plan would no doubt work well in Pennsylvania, and would obviate in a great degree, if not entirely remove, the gross inequalities of the present system. The main objection urged against a change is, that in case the valuation was raised to a cash standard, taxation might be increased. In other words, that the broad basis which the actual value would show, would be a temptation to official extravagance and reckless expenditure. There is, we apprehend, little or no force in this objection, and we will not stop to argue the point. The tax millage ought to decrease just in proportion to the increased valuation, and the only legitimate result of the change should be—equal taxation for all.

An important incident of the adoption of some such change as that above suggested, would be the ascertainment of the actual wealth of this community. Few have anything like a correct idea on this subject. Allegheny county, the second in the State, shows a total valuation of only a fraction over thirty-five millions, as appears from the assessment for 1867, on file in the County Controller's office. The figures are as follows:

Pittsburgh	$12,644,763
Allegheny	4,892,726
Boroughs	4,913,064
Townships	12,870,185
Total valuation	$35,321,238

Let a millionaire send an agent out here for the purpose of buying the "Iron City," and how far would $12,000,000 go towards accomplishing that object? By the time he would purchase the property on Liberty, Wood, Market, Penn, Water and Fifth streets, his bank account would be very small, if not entirely exhausted. What a nice little speculation it would be for a rich corporation to get possession of Allegheny City for the sum of $5,000,000! There are many men who would like to buy any one of our sixteen thriving boroughs at the rate of five millions for the whole; while the forty-four townships would find ready purchasers at the low price of three hundred thousand dollars apiece. There is no way of ascertaining the actual wealth of this great and prosperous county, but anything like a fair approximation to the cash standard would no doubt run the aggregate up to $200,000,000. It would certainly not fall below, while it might greatly exceed that sum. It is difficult to even form a guess as to the county, but we are much mistaken if it does not exceed $1,000,000. It would be interesting, as well as very useful, to know these facts, and have them spread before the world. A truthful exhibit of our wealth and resources would invite and attract here capitalists who are now comparatively ignorant of the favorble field here presented for business enterprise and productive energy.

THE STATE.

We append below a complete list of the counties in the State, with the reported majorities in each, by which it will be seen Judge Williams has a majority of six hundred and sixty-eight. The State Central Committee, however, figure up Judge Williams's majority at two thousand. The Democracy claimed the State yesterday morning by ten thousand majority, but last night their figures had dropped to thirty-four hundred. As the return judges meet to-day in the several counties, we shall probably know the result officially by to-night:

The Result in Allegheny County.

Returns have been received from all the districts in this county excepting the townships of Baldwin, East Deer, West Deer, Richland, Marshall and Findley. These are all Republican districts except Marshall and Findley, and making allowance for such losses as are likely to be sustained by us in these districts, the result will stand about as follows:

Williams	15,765
Sharswood	9,269
Williams's majority	6,496

It is hardly possible that Judge Williams's majority can fall below 6,400, unless some serious errors have been made in the figures returned.

FROM STEUBENVILLE.

The Election—A Rascal Recaptured—The Late Judge Bostwick—Appointment—Squirrel Hunting—The P. C. & C. Fast Line.

Special Correspondence of Pittsburgh Commercial.
STEUBENVILLE, October 10, 1867.

The election is over, and from present appearances the Republican ticket is elected by a reduced majority. The exultations of the Democracy on yesterday, had collapsed suddenly by evening, when the news came that Hayes was elected.

James alias Pussy Curran, who escaped from the jail in this city, on Friday, the 4th inst., was recaptured last evening at Lagrange, seven miles below the city, by Marshal Hukell and officer Gilmore of the night watch. The officers got a clue as to the whereabouts of Curran yesterday, and started down to Lagrange in a buggy. Before reaching the latter place they stopped at a house and learned that Curran had been there that day, and was considerably under the influence of liquor. The officers then started for Lagrange, and drove up to the United States House, kept by George Cooper. On entering the house Marshall Hukell demanded a light, and on being informed by the landlady that they had no light in the house, the officers then went into a room and discovered the tail of a coat hanging out from under a bed, under which was a "trundle bed," which when pulled out was found to contain the body of the redoubtable "James," who was conveyed by the officers to his old quarters, where it is to be hoped he will be kept until disposed of by court. Sheriff Moore now has in his charge two prisoners, Lewis K. and John J. McCoy, on a charge of murder in the first degree; John Wilson, charged with burglary, and "Pussy" Curran, charged with rape, and it is to be hoped that a strict watch will be kept on these men in the future, and not leave them in charge of any subordinates, for it is a fact which cannot be denied, the escape of Curran was effected through the carelessness of the jailor, a man whom the citizens all look upon as an honest old man but entirely unfit for a position so responsible.

In the COMMERCIAL of yesterday, in giving the age of Judge Bostwick, of Harrison county, who died very suddenly on Sunday, 6th inst., his age was given at sixty, when it should have been seventy-three years.

James Robinson, Esq., the gentlemanly baggage agent of the C. & P. R. R., in this city, has been commissioned by Gov. Cox as policeman for said road. I congratulate friend James, and feel assured that if he becomes as popular in his new position as he was in the old, he will have no cause to regret the turn things have taken, although the traveling community would miss his smiling countenance at the depot.

A couple of Republicans who had become disgusted with the turn things had taken, concluded to "go for" a more congenial clime. Suiting the action to the word, they took the early train yesterday morning with their "guns upon their shoulders," &c., and returned on the train last night at 10 P. M., having one hundred and fifty "gray backs" for their trouble, which was pretty good shooting, taking into consideration the fact that it was not a very good day for squirrels either.

The "fast line" train on the P. C. & C. R. R. made the run from Cincinnati to Pittsburgh, on Monday last, from 7 A. M. to 7 P. M., the fastest time ever made on the road. Josh Beebout was the conductor and Wm. Anderson the engineer, from Columbus to Pittsburgh. The travel over the above road during the past month or so has been immense, and the road is gaining ground every day and is undoubtedly the great "short line" from the East to the "Great West." So says their "card."

LATE NEWS.

Mayor Hoffman and ex-Governor Seymour, of New York, have been summoned to Washington by the President.

Secretary Seward was the guest of Thurlow Weed, in New York, yesterday.

It is said that a fraud has been discovered by which 3,000 illegal Democratic votes were received in Philadelphia on Tuesday.

The colored juries in North Carolina are said to be giving satisfaction to the bar generally.

It is said that Mr. Hunnicutt made a speech to the negroes in Charles City Court House, Virginia, and advised them that if they could not handle muskets, they could set fire to the dwellings of their enemies.

BOGUS BONDS.

Counterfeit 7-30 Notes in Circulation—A Large Amount Afloat—A Portion Forwarded from Pittsburgh.

NEW YORK, October 10.—Considerable excitement was caused in the stock market this morning by the announcement that counterfeit 7-30s of the issue of June, 1865, had been discovered. Prices did not, however, fall off much. The discovery was made in Washington by the chief clerk of the Treasury Department, and Mr. Clark, Government printer, arrived this morning with a detective, who has been endeavoring to ascertain the amount issued, and the hands through which the fraudulent notes have passed. Thus far he has discovered one hundred and sixty thousand dollars worth, and has identified a number of banks and banking houses that either now hold or have recently passed them. The issues are all dated between the 21st of September and the 5th of October this year. Many of them are of whiter paper than the genuine, the borders ruled wider, and the star seal slightly larger, with larger rays.

There is a disposition to regard the excitement unwarranted by the facts. The counterfeits which have reached this city have been almost entirely from Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Springfield, and a few other Western cities, and in amounts of from one thousand to five thousand dollars at a time. The Express says the notes are the best counterfeit ever issued, of Government securities, and that the conjecture is that the whole amount is from one-half to two and a half million dollars. It is rumored that one house here has half a million. The counterfeit bonds are of the second series of seven-thirties, dated June 15th, 1865, of the denomination of $1,000.

The Commercial says: As some of the largest dealers in this city have been deceived, it is highly probable dealers in other cities have been swindled by this paper also, and that the amount may reach millions of dollars.

The Elections.

The results of the election in Ohio and Pennsylvania having been pretty well ascertained, there has not been so much excitement to-day as during yesterday and the day before, though crowds have thronged the hotels, newspaper offices and other public places, freely discussing the great political events. It is but truth to state that the results surprise both parties, especially that in Ohio, and it is difficult to declare whether the Republicans or Democrats are the most astonished. Some of the latter, who were regarded as over confident, were laughed at yesterday for offering to bet that Hayes, for Governor, would not have more than fifteen thousand, while one up to last night was willing to take the chances that Thurman would be elected. No similar political event has excited greater interest among public men and politicians here, especially the Presidential wire-workers, and it has been discussed to-day from the Presidential circles at the White House, down through all of the various cliques and crowds of the town.

Cabinet Reconstruction.

The first question asked, what will Congress now do about impeachment, is answered generally that while it may not be abandoned, it will not be pushed very vigorously. The President's friends say he has no fear of impeachment, even if he ever had any, and will show that he intends to turn over a new leaf regarding office holders, commencing first with his Cabinet. In this direction it may be stated with confidence that the first change will be made in the War Department. General Grant will be superceded in the course of ten days by either General McClernand, of Illinois, or Frank Blair, Jr. The State Department is booked for next in order. Then Secretary of the Treasury and Postmaster General Randall with probably Mr. Seward. There is more reasonable doubt of Secretary McCulloch's suspension than perhaps any other Cabinet Minister, but the President's Democratic friends are very bitter on the Secretary, and declare that he has refused to assist them with a single office in Pennsylvania. It is doubtful if the President can withstand the pressure, and Mr. McCulloch seems to feel it, for he declared to-day that he did not regard his tenure of office as very strong. The change of General Grant excites more comment than the other Cabinet Ministers, for the removal of the latter have been generally anticipated, provided the elections resulted against the Republican party.

Presidential Campaign.

Perhaps the greatest feature of the discussion is that pertaining to the impending Presidential campaign. The Colfax, Chase and Grant men express their views freely. The former two do not favor the abandonment of manhood suffrage, but such Republicans as support Grant for President declare that the result in Ohio shows that the suffrage plank must be omitted at the next Republican Convention. The Washington Star, the largest circulated paper here, and radical in politics, sounds the key note of this latter course. There are in Washington a large number of influential and wealthy men who are working zealously in the interest of Mr. Chase for the Presidency, and they have taken the very deepest interest in the Ohio election. Some of this number declare that policy will now require them, to keep quiet for the present, but they openly deny that they intend to dissolve their organization. To sum up these expressions of the views of the various parties, there is a general concurrence in agreeing to wait and see what Congress will do when it assembles the last of November, and in the meantime to watch the course of the administration.

New Reconstruction Policy.

The important fact that the President has summoned General Schofield here, and may call the other District Commanders, is looked upon as indicating a new policy regarding reconstruction, and it is well understood that the President will ask General S. to postpone the Virginia election. General Pope may be removed, and General Swayne, at the head of the Freedmen's Bureau in Alabama, is sure to be decapitated. This is the best information that can be obtained from official sources, where, in fact, not much concealment regarding it is maintained.

A Serenade

Was proposed to the President by some few Johnson men, but it is significant that the Democrats generally opposed it, and it has been abandoned.

Democrats Congratulating the President

There have been several arrivals of prominent Democrats in town to-day, among them ex-Senator Bright and ex-Congressman Voorhees, of Indiana. A large number of visitors were at the Executive Mansion to-day, among whom were many of the President's Democratic friends, who were anxious to congratulate him upon their recent victories. Secretaries McCulloch and Welles, Attorney General Stanbery, General Sherman, Hon. Reverdy Johnson, Representatives Marshal and Archer, ex-Governor Cummings and other prominent persons also had interviews with the Executive this morning.

The War Office.

The Star this evening says that there seems to be no doubt that General Grant will be relieved from the War Department in the course of a few days, probably before the close of the week. Many persons are confident that General Sherman will be directed to take charge of that office, but it is not likely that he will be placed in a position where he will have command of his superior officer, General Grant. McClernand, Steedman, Blair and others are named as the successor of General Grant, but your correspondent is induced to believe by administration sources that Frank Blair is the man.

Revenue Frauds.

The Secretary of the Treasury had under consideration to-day the propriety of abolishing the Metropolitan Revenue Board in New York, and adopting some other measures for the investigation of frauds on the revenue. Nothing positive was decided.

WASHINGTON, October 10, 1867.

TROOPS SENT TO MARYLAND.

A detachment of infantry and three batteries of artillery were sent to Fort McHenry yesterday. Four hundred regulars from New York have also arrived in Baltimore. The cause of these movements is believed to be to place the authorities in a position to preserve the peace between the turbulent factions in Baltimore.

PERSONAL.

General Schofield, Messrs. Moorhead and Spalding, and Senator Reverdy Johnson had interviews with General Grant. General Schofield also had an interview with the President, and leaves in a few days for the North. General Sherman, Secretary Welles, Secretary Browning, Attorney General Stanberry, Congressmen Marshall, of Illinois, and Senator Johnson, were among those who called upon the President.

POSTOFFICE DEPARTMENT NOT SELF-SUSTAINING.

It is stated the expenditures of the Postoffice department for the fiscal year will be largely in excess of the receipts. This is said to be owing to the opening of a large number of routes in the Southern States not self-sustaining.

POSTAL TREATY WITH BELGIUM.

The postal treaty between the United States and Belgium has finally been ratified.

COUNTERFEIT SEVEN-THIRTIES.

Seventy thousand dollars of the counterfeit 7-30 bonds of the second series have been presented at the Treasury Department for redemption. All were either of the A or B series. This counterfeit is regarded as one of the most dangerous yet executed. It is said to be supe-back engraved by Ubric, who is now in prison.

INDEFINITELY POSTPONED.

The proposed serenade to the President has been indefinitely postponed.

Washington Topics and Gossip.

THE CABINET CHANGES.

Senator Patterson, the President's son-in-law, stated publicly, while he and Mr. Bogy were in a fit of ecstacy over the returns from Ohio, that Ex-Governor Seymour will succeed Seward. From a similar source it is learned that Frank P. Blair, Jr., General McClernand and General Ewing, are named for the War Office. Mr. Johnson has failed to make the use he wished of General Sherman. For Secretary McCulloch's place there are several names mentioned. Messrs. Black and Cowan are mentioned as the representatives of Pennsylvania, and their friends state that New York prefers and will ask for the Treasury Department, and give the State Department to Pennsylvania. Many think that McCulloch will not be removed, but it is known that he will be fought by the corrupt politicians from Pennsylvania and Ohio, by whom he could not be used to aid their schemes. They will be back in a few days, and, flushed with victory, will think nothing too great for them to demand. Stanbery and Welles are said to have done all that was asked of them to insure the late triumph, and nothing is said as to what is to be done with Randall and Browning.

THE IMPEACHMENT QUESTION.

Certain newspapers have reported as true the statement of a New York correspondent that Mr. Johnson has collected the speeches of members of Congress on impeachment, made in various parts of the country, and that stenographers have been employed here, &c. Had not these journals treated the matter seriously, no notice would have been taken of it. There is the best authority, however, for the denial of the assertions contained in the correspondence referred to. There is not a word of truth in them. It is generally conceded that the impeachment movement will not be pushed at the next meeting of Congress.

THE PRESS AND THE ELECTIONS.

Comments of New York Journals.

The Result Not a Democratic Victory.

NEW YORK, October 10.—The Tribune says: "Ohio on Tuesday gave more votes and a larger proportion of her Republican strength for manhood suffrage than any other State has ever given—more by many thousands than she would ever have given till now. The vital principle of genuine Democracy will march on through seeming defeats to inevitable and conclusive triumph. Through whatever trials of its constancy—its consistency, the great party will move right on to the arduous but inevitable achievement of equal rights for all."

The World says: "The news we publish from Ohio fills the measure of our hopes. The elections are an indignant, unanimous veto upon the policy of the party in power."

The Times says: "The elections indicate no increased confidence in the Democratic party, but simply a reaction against the extreme acts and measures of the Republican party, and convey an admonition which ought to be salutary to political leaders."

The Herald says: "The recent elections do not denote Democratic victories, but that the Republican element of the country has stepped aside to rebuke its leaders."

The Journal of Commerce says: "If the returns from Ohio can be relied upon, the reaction against negro suffrage is even more determined than was expected. It will be very difficult for any faction to secure favor for years to come while indorsing this measure."

The Commercial Advertiser says: "The muddle between Congress and the President occasioned the military Reconstruction Act, under which they expect to bring those States back under negro supremacy, and this is precisely the question on which, after full argument, Ohio has rendered a verdict which ends Chief Justice Chase's aspirations for the Presidency, and terminates Ben. Wade's Senatorial career."

The Post has nothing editorially on the subject.

The Express says: "The elections mean the restoration of the Democratic party to power, and declare against the whole Congressional reconstruction system of the radicals, and all their paper money management. There never was so meaning an election as that in Ohio."

NASHVILLE.

Inauguration of Gov. Brownlow—The Inaugural Address.

NASHVILLE, October 10.—Governor Brownlow was inaugurated this morning. He appeared in the House of Representatives and took the oath of office. The inaugural was read by his private secretary. In it he expresses gratitude for the honor of a second election by a larger majority than ever given a Governor, but regards it as the triumph of the principles represented in his nomination, rather than a personal victory. He paid the highest compliment to the Republican party, the only organization controlled by men up with the advanced ideas of the times, and guarding with a zealous eye the preservation of the Union.

He spoke of Tennessee as the harbinger of a new dispensation of political affairs in the South. In regard to Northern men settling in the State, he said: I have witnessed with regret in different parts of the State a disposition to proscribe Northern men and drive them from the country. I do not enter into this spirit, nor will I administer the executive branch of the State Government upon any such principle. If men are good enough to come to Tennessee and encounter the cold and heat, in the mud and rain of our climate, and face rebel bullets in putting down the rebellion, they are good enough when qualified to fill offices of honor and trust. We want Northern capital, Northern enterprise, etc. To get all this, I for one am willing to take a fair proportion of Northern politicians, but I yield to no man in my country for that class of Northern men who come among us and for the sake of position and patronage abandon their honest sentiments and become rebel sympathizers.

The inaugural concludes as follows: Imploring for your guidance the favor of Almighty God, which is never withheld from the law makers whose cause is just, shaped solely by the conception He gives them of right and duty, I close with a sentiment which I trust may inspire all our actions, "the union of the Republican party for the sake of the Union."

NEW YORK, October 10, 1867.

STORAGE OF OILS AND WHISKY.

The Board of Councilmen to-day passed a resolution directing the committee on public buildings to report an ordinance prohibiting the storing of oils and whisky in this city in amounts beyond quantities such as they shall fix, and also for licensing and otherwise supervising the distillation of whisky within the city limits.

EXPORT OF SPECIE.

The export of specie to-day was $172,000.

EXAMINATION COMMENCED.

The examination of Arnold, the defaulting second teller of the Tradesman's Bank, commenced to-day.

INFORMERS' FEES.

Judge Blatchford, in the United States District Court to-day, decided that in cases of seizures under the Internal Revenue laws, the shares of informers are to be determined by the regulations in force at the time the forfeited property is sold by the Marshal and cannot be effected by any regulation subsequently made.

FAST TROTTING.

The great trotting contest for the Long Island Club stake for three-year olds, came off to-day on the Fashion Course. It was sweepstakes, $500 each, half forfeit. There were sixteen entries and six started. The race was mile heats and repeat, in harness, the second horse saving his stake. The value of the stake was $4,650. It was won in two heats by Mr. J. S. Watson's b. g., brother to Bruno, time 2:52¼, 2:52¼. A match for two thousand dollars, mile heats, in harness, was won by J. Lovett's blk. g. Gen. Butler, beating D. Mace's b. m. Mountain Maid in three straight heats; time 2:28, 2:27¼ and 2:29¼. During the above races Commodore Vanderbilt's b. g. Mountain Boy was driven half a mile in 1:07¼.

BASE BALL.

The return game of base ball to-day between the Atlantics, of Brooklyn, and the Union, of Morrisania, resulted in the defeat of the Atlantic. This gives the championship to the Unions. Score—Union 13, Atlantic 12.

Murder in Springfield, Ohio.

CINCINNATI, October 10.—Dan. Hertzler, a wealthy citizen of Springfield, Ohio, was murdered this morning by burglars, who entered his house for the purpose of robbery. The murderers escaped, taking off Mr. Hertzler's horse and buggy.

A Penitentiary Robbed.

HARTFORD, October 10.—The State prison at Weathersfield was entered by burglars last night, and two hundred dollars' worth of silverware stolen from the burnishing shop.

FROM UNIONTOWN.

The Election—Stabbing Affray—Fire in Connellsville.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.
UNIONTOWN, PA., October 9, 1867.

The election passed off quietly here yesterday, no special interest being taken in it by any one to secure a large vote, and the probabilities are that the vote will be very small. At McClellandtown, this county, the day did not pass so quietly. One or two stabbing affrays occurred. The first was of an insignificant character, but the second serious. A man named Daniel Hohstetter stabbed and cut another by the name of Vincent quite seriously. He stabbed him several times in the back, but the only dangerous cut was on the side of the neck and the throat. It is thought to-day that Vincent will recover. The quarrel was about politics.

A fire occurred in Connellsville last evening about 7 P. M., burning two houses and a foundry. One of the houses was owned and occupied by Mr. Adam Armstrong. The other was occupied by Mr. D. Percy as a store room and dwelling house. The houses were both excellent buildings, and the loss will be quite heavy.

Nomination Accepted.

BOSTON, October 10.—John Quincy Adams accepts the Democratic nomination for Governor of Massachusetts, in a letter which indorses the policy of the Convention.

GARIBALDI.

The Revolutionists on the Road to Rome.

SINA LUNGA, VAL DI CHIANA,
Monday night, September 26, 1867.

These are trying days for a correspondent. On foot at 5 A. M. to visit some old Roman Etruscan and "Pagan" relics in the town of Arezzo, witness the rifle shooting, and then drive out to breakfast at a villa built on the site where Garibaldi encamped with his 3,000 in 1849. We drove thither with several gentlemen from Arezzo, and he said, laughing, "If I had not known that the very scum of the earth accompanied me, I should assuredly have paid you a visit; but I could not summon courage to expose an Italian town to sack and pillage by such termagants." As we reached the villa the National Guard band and some forty choristers played the hymn of the General's own composition set to Donizetti's music; he was extremely pleased, and made them sing the last verse over again, saying that as a hymn it was poor stuff, but the truths contained therein the Italians would do well to remember. The usual banquet followed. Garibaldi said that he deemed the present generation of Italians fortunate to live and die for their country; their children and children's children would doubtless be good and useful citizens—peasants, merchants, lawyers, etc.; but to this generation is conceded the high honor of being soldiers of their fatherland. After breakfast he asked the padrona of the villa to let him rest a while, bidding us come and fetch him at 2 P. M. I note that he never returns to the same house, and that none of his followers know his plans. Of course the deputations that awaited him were disappointed, and returned with us to the villa, so that the carriages could hardly make their way through the crowd. He grew impatient, and reproved the red-shirts: "These are not times for talk, for kisses, for hand-grasps. You ask me where I am going. To Rome, unless I am shot or caged. You say, 'Take me?' You must come as best you can. If you have the will to do so you will find the way. I don't care about numbers; I want picked men—men who won't turn tail. Now let me pass." It was like speaking to the wind. At last the coachman touched his horses, and the crowd made way, and we went for some miles at full gallop. Then he checked the speed in order to revisit every spot he had passed in '49. An old man recognized him and told him he was handsomer than ever. At a turn in the road we left the '49 line and wound into the very midst of the Val di Chiana, that wondrously fertile valley, shut in between the three lakes, Montepulciano, Trasimine, and Chiusi, and sheltered by a perfect amphitheater of mountains. The ostensible object of to-day's tour is to visit the scenes of Hannibal's victories; also to keep going and not to always keep on the beaten track. At any rate, the ride was delightful, and wonderful were the stories of the genius and perseverance which found this immense tract of land a wilderness and marshy plain, and left it what it is—an earthly paradise. Of course the grand old oaks and elms have been in a great part sacrificed, but they are still more numerous, and much finer, than any I have seen elsewhere. At 4½ we arrived at Marciano, the country-house of the brothers Salvatore—eight in number—all Garibaldians. They possess 40 estates, and some 500 peasants work on them. One brother is Syndic; another, Municipal Councillor. All were anxious that the General should remain with them, but he was bent on reaching Sina Lunga; so with two splendid horses we whirled away, leaving the rest to follow. Sina Lunga is a sort of eagle's nest, on the top of a hill, population some 1,200, but more than ten per cent. of the whole have been Garibaldians. As we reached the foot of the ascent, Pietro Salvatore said to Garibaldi, "You once made all the monks in that convent prisoners." "No, no," he replied; "it was a convent above Chinsi. The Archbishop of Chinsi imprisoned two of my guides; I took all his monks, and sent to tell him I would shoot them if he did not liberate my men. But the threat made no impression on him, and he kept my guides." "He knew you too well, General," said Pietro.

The entire little population met us on the road; the two bands vied with each other in deafening us, and when we reached the summit the town looked like fairy land, so bright and quaint was the illumination. I certainly was astonished to hear the peasants crying "Viva Garibaldi!" "Viva Roma!" "Death to the priests!" "Death to nobody," answered G. from his balcony. "But they eat our bread; make them change their clothes and work; we we will begin that business at Rome. Yes! yes, —a Rome or Morte! No Rome and life." This new rendering of the old watchword is universally popular. At eight o'clock the "banquet" was not served. "If I might only have a piece of bread and go to bed," whispered Garibaldi. But no; he had to receive deputation after deputation. (There looks work in these representative nine). The young men from Perugia told him that the police had torn down all the placards announcing his arrival, and affirming that "Rome shall not be sold as Nice." "They will do worse than that," replied Garibaldi. "Did you post tehm again?" All depends upon the people; if they will Rome we shall have it, let who will do their worst. At length Basso and the rest came, and we sat down to dinner. Garibaldi, after the first course, made a quiet, telling speech: "One man can do little," pointing to the frescoes around the room illustrating his battles: "Montevideo, Roma, Vaure, Trepontl, Marsala, Calatafimi, Valturno." He said to the lady of the house, who sat next to him: "Please put a bis (encore) against Roma, and do you remember (to the youths present) that those are the people's victories, not mine. All your demonstrations, and receptions, and toasts, would be unworthy flattery to a man, if in that man you did not recognize the representative of a principle. We began with the cry, 'The foreigners are gone,' and shall we leave the sensale, the go-betweens, the summer of foreigners in our midst? No; this cancer, this true cholera morbus must be uprooted and destroyed. I repeat that one man can do little. I may be hindered, struck down. The work is yours. Good night."

After he left, the toasts rose higher and reached the Roman Republic bis. To-morrow we start at 5 A. M., breakfast in Casa Salvatore, and proceed thence to Perugia.

ARREST OF GARIBALDI.

FLORENCE, September 23, 8 P. M.

I posted letters just now written at Sina Lunga, where, at 5:40 the General was arrested by some twenty carabinieri and two companies of the Twenty-seventh Regiment of the line. They surrounded the house at 4 A. M., arrested the master, all the guests, shut horses and coachmen in stables.

Then the lieutenant went to the General saying, "A letter for you," and he read it in bed. It was the order for arrest. "I understand," he said; "I suppose I can take my bath?" "Certainly; but the officer of the Twenty-seventh refused and carried him off just as he was without a second shirt. A special train awaited him at Sina Lunga; they popped him in and carried him via Scina near to Florence; there, finding that the tidings had spread, orders were sent to convey him to Alessandria, where he now is. I write on the point of starting, so excuse haste.

Florence in fury! The people have snatched arms from the National Guard; several sherri wounded; all the troops in the streets. My next from Alessandria.

FORTRESS OF ALESSANDRIA,
September 25—11 A. M.

Again a hasty line, to tell you that I have seen Garibaldi in his filthy den; that I am supposed not to have seen him; that I am awaiting permission to see him.

He is, on the whole, very angry; first, that as a Deputy he, the invincible, has been arrested—not in delicto flagrante, seeing that he was merely on a visit to a friend with two secretaries; secondly, that he has been plunged into a beastly hole, and has not slept a wink, owing to fleas, bugs, and lice.

He reclaims his American citizenship, and if I get out of this and see your Minister I guess he will get it. Henceforward he remains Italian, but refuses to be a "subject" of Victor Emanuel. When I left Florence the city was in a state of siege, Rattazzi hidden or escaped, the people frenzied.

As I reached Voghera, Marquis and Marchioness Palavicini—he of the Spielberg, afterward Prefect of Palermo—rushed into the carriage. "What can we do for the General?" "Send him eight blankets, eight sheets, and twelve towels for his vapor bath;" and away they sped.

At one station off Alessandria I was advised that another "special train" of prisoners was telegraphed.

I much fear Menotti is of the number. If so, adieu Rome. If he remains free, the aim of Garibaldi will yet be realized.—N. Y. Tribune.

CLEARFIELD COUNTY.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.
CLEARFIELD, October 10, 1867.

Ten districts give Sharswood a majority of seven hundred and thirty-six, an increase of one hundred over last year. Sharswood's majority will reach about thirteen hundred.
S. J. R.

MERCER COUNTY.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.
GREENVILLE, PA., October 10, 1867.

Full returns from Mercer county give Williams six hundred majority.
T. H. B.

PHILADELPHIA, October 10.—Colonel Wallace, Chairman of the Democratic committee, has received positive information from the different counties, which indicates a majority for Sharswood of from three to eight thousand.

THE LATEST.

PHILADELPHIA, October 10, 11:30 P. M.—The Bulletin estimates the majority for Williams, Republican candidate for Supreme Judge, at 1,286. It also estimates the following as the composition of the Legislature: Senate—Republicans, 19; Democrats, 11; doubtful, 3. House—Republicans, 54; Democrats, 41; doubtful, 5.

The Evening Telegraph has the following dispatch:

HARRISBURG, October 10.—Pretty full and reliable returns from all portions of the State indicate that the State Legislature will be composed as follows: Senate—Republicans, 20; Democrats, 13. House—Republicans, 55; Democrats, 45.

OHIO.

THE STATE.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.
COLUMBUS, O., October 10—9 P. M.

The Democrats have carried the Senate by one majority, and the House by seven majority.

The State Executive Committee fix General Haye's majority for Governor at 2,925.
J.

COLUMBUS, October 10, 4:15 P. M.—Returns show that Hayes is no doubt elected Governor by from one to two thousand majority. The Legislature is Democratic by a small majority. Carroll, Hocking and Noble counties are to hear from.

ALLIANCE, OHIO.

Democrats Rejoicing over Their Victory.

Special Dispatch to Commercial.
ALLIANCE, O., October 11, 1867.

We have had considerable excitement here to-night over the election news. The town is full of people who came in to see Dan Rice's show. The most exciting feature of the evening was the firing of a salute by the Democracy over their great victory. We hope they enjoy it. We do, because it will teach the Republicans a lesson, and may be the means of giving us a chance to politically kill the remainder of Andy Johnson's hirelings. The report here is that Hayes is elected by a small majority.
D. S. McQ.

MARYLAND.

Nominations of the Republican State Convention.

BALTIMORE, October 10.—The Republican State Convention met to-day and made the following nominations: Governor, Judge Hugh L. Bond; Attorney General, H. H. Goldsborough, of Talbot; Comptroller, F. Schly, of Frederick.

Resolutions were adopted that the Republican party of Maryland adhere firmly to the principle of manhood suffrage, universal and uniform education, and the payment of the national debt, and pledge themselves to fight it out on that line.

The second resolution advocates public education for all children of the State, and the maintenance of the present school system of the State with no changes except to increase its usefulness and promote economy. The third resolution favors the repeal of the present militia law.

The Democrats are now firing one hundred guns on Federal Hill, in honor of the result of the late elections in Pennsylvania and Ohio.

In the Republican State Convention to-day, a resolution was adopted by 64 to 17, recommending the nomination of General Grant for President by the Republicans.

SAN FRANCISCO.

Death of a Prominent Politician—Wheat Shipments.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 7.—John B. Ridge died at Grass Valley, October 5th. He was a prominent California politician, poet and journalist. His father was chief of the Cherokee nation.

The Western Union Telegraph Company's bark Clara Bell has arrived from Plover Bay, bringing a portion of the employees of the company. The Nightingale, which sailed the same day, September 16th, is momentarily expected with the remainder.

The Savage Mining Company has declared a dividend of $150 per foot for September.

Wheat shipments in September were six hundred and sixty thousand two hundred and fifty-eight sacks, valued at one million two hundred and sixty-four thousand three hundred and eighty-six dollars.

DOMINION OF CANADA.

Arms for Fenians—Resignations.

TORONTO, October 10.—The Globe's Ottawa correspondent says, it is reported several car loads of arms were discharged at Potsdam, marked "O. R. Malone," for use of the Fenians, and conveyed into the country bordering on the St. Lawrence river, and secreted to be ready when required by the Brotherhood. The report cannot be traced to any reliable source.

OTTAWA, October 10.—The members of the local government of Nova Scotia tendered their resignations to Sir F. Williams. He declines to receive them, as his appointment is only provisional, and he leaves for England on the 24th. Gen. Doyle will then be sworn in, and a new local Cabinet organized.

QUEBEC, October 10.—The steamship St. Andrew, from Liverpool, passed Farther Point at 7:15 P. M.

The Health of Memphis.

MEMPHIS, October 8.—Reports about the yellow fever prevailing to a serious extent are untrue. There are some cases of a light nature. There have been very few deaths. The origin of most of these cases has been traced to New Orleans. The weather is very clear and cool, which has abated all sickness very much. The health of the city is rather better than usual at this season of the year.

EUROPE.

BY THE ATLANTIC CABLE.

ANOTHER BATTLE IN ITALY.

Outbreak Expected in Rome.

Fenian Excitement in England Unabated.

Degree of LL. D. Conferred on American Bishops.

Battle in Italy.

FLORENCE, October 10.—There was another battle yesterday between the Garibaldians and Papal forces near Montalibaeta. It is reported that the invaders were defeated, but no reliable account of the result has been received. The men of the party of action here assert that the insurrection will soon break out in the city of Rome itself. They say preparations for this purpose are complete, and the leaders of the movement in Rome are acting in concert with the invaders in Viterbo and elsewhere.

Fenian Excitement Unabated.

LONDON, Wednesday Evening.—The excitement about the Fenians in the north of England is unabated. The Government continues its precautions against an outbreak. Another detachment of regular troops are under orders to leave by railway for Cumberland garrison, Carlisle Castle.

LONDON, October 10.—Orders have been issued from the Home Office, that all armories belonging to the volunteer forces be guarded and placed in a condition of defense. It is generally believed that the Government will call Parliament together on the 19th of November.

Degree Conferred on American Bishops.

The Degree of Doctor of Laws has been conferred by Cambridge University, upon all the American Bishops now attending the Pan-Anglican Synod.

New Market Races.

NEW MARKET, Evening, October 10.—The second pay of the meeting commenced with a run for sweepstakes won by Victrix. In the race for the Oatlands stakes, Veridis was the winner. The middle park stakes were taken by Greensleeve.

Revision of Concordat.

VIENNA, October 10.—The municipal government of this city have presented a petition to the Emperor, praying for a revision of the Concordat.

Shipping Intelligence.

LIVERPOOL, October 9.—The steamship Circassian, from Bremen for New York, put into Falmouth with her machinery disabled. She will go into the dock for repairs.

London Money Market.

LONDON, October 9, Evening.—Consols 94¼; bonds 71¾; Illinois 77¼; Erie 42½; Atlantic 22.

LONDON, October 10, 2 P. M.—Consols steady at 94¼; 5-20 bonds 72; Illinois Central 77¼; Erie 44.

Liverpool Markets.

LIVERPOOL, October 9, Evening.—Cotton irregular. Breadstuffs quiet and unchanged.

LIVERPOOL, October 10, 2 P. M.—Cotton continues quiet and quotations unchanged; sales 12,000 bales. Breadstuffs steady. Corn 44s 6d. London Market.

LONDON, October 10.—Market unchanged.

Antwerp Petroleum Market.

ANTWERP, October 10.—Petroleum 58f.

ST. LOUIS.

Closing Day of the Fair.

ST. LOUIS, October 10.—To-day has been the gain day of the week at the fair. Outside of the retail trade, business was very generally suspended. The Merchants' Exchange was closed, and nearly all classes of citizens gave themselves up to enjoyment. Not less than sixty thousand people visited the fair grounds during the day; and there was no time during the exhibitions in the ring that there were less than 15,000 persons in the amphitheater. Among the premiums awarded for machinery, agricultural implements, &c., were the following: Thomas & Nast, Springfield, Ohio, Buckeye grain drill. Pumps for wells and cisterns, Cowing & Co., Seneca Falls, N. Y. Grain separator, Turner, Parks & Co., Ohio.

RICHMOND.

Rejoicing Over the Elections—The Davis Trial.

RICHMOND, October 10.—Outside of the Republican party the election news has been received here with general pleasure, and the streets have been crowded all day. The colored people seem to be particularly dismayed at the fate of the amendment in Ohio.

The government is making arrangements to have the Davis trial and arguments reported by stenographers, for preservation in blank form.

Base Ball Player Killed.

MILWAUKEE, October 10.—Carl Ruff, a young man, and formerly Adjutant of the Forty-fifth Wisconsin, was killed by a sharp fence picket piercing his throat while he was jumping a fence in playing base ball.

Fire in Louisville.

LOUISVILLE, October 10.—A liquor establishment owned by Jabob Anthony, on Fourth street, between Main and the river, was partially destroyed by fire to-night. Loss about $6,000; amount of insurance not ascertained.

Fire in Skowhegan, Me.

PORTLAND, October 10.—A fire in Skowhegan this afternoon destroyed Abbott's planing mill, Webb's grocery store, Lord's blacksmith shop, and a paint shop.

Fever Interments in New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, October 10.—The yellow fever interments for the twenty-four hours were fifty-six.

CITY MATTERS.

LEGAL DOCUMENT FOUND.—An order of Court, relative to a road in Patton township, was found in the street yesterday. It may be had at the COMMERCIAL Counting-room.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Last evening a little girl, whose parents reside near the corner of Carson and Oliver streets, Birmingham, while playing near a well fell in and was drowned. The Coroner was notified and will hold an inquest to-day.

THE OFFICIAL RETURNS.—The Return Judges will meet this forenoon, at ten o'clock, in the District Court room, for the purpose of receiving and counting up the returns from the several districts in the county. We shall publish the official tables to-morrow.

DEATH OF AN ESTIMABLE LADY.—Mrs. Isabella Herron, relict of the late Wm. Herron, and mother of Dr. James B. and Campbell B. Herron, died yesterday at her residence, corner of North and East Commons, Allegheny, at the advanced age of seventy-seven years. Her funeral will take place this afternoon at three o'clock.

NEW LAW FIRM.—As will be seen by card in another column, Jno. H. Hampton and John Dalzell, Esqs., have entered into partnership for the practice of the law in all its branches. The senior member of the firm occupies a prominent rank at the bar, and the junior by his talents and energy will not be long in attaining a similar enviable position.

Public Amusements.

OPERA HOUSE.—The largest and most brilliant audience of the season was that assembled at the Opera House last evening, to witness Edwin Booth's impersonation of "Richelieu." The wily cardinal has had many representatives in Bulwer's play on the Pittsburgh stage, but we question if he ever had a better than Booth. His conception of the character is not materially different from that of the eminent actors who include the play in their repertoire, yet in its performance by Booth there is a novelty that is peculiarly agreeable. It may be said that in all his assumptions Mr. Booth manifests the closest study of his characters, and brings to their performance a natural artistic ability and grace that commends them to the public. He never aims to make a point with his audience, but seems to identify himself so closely with the character as to ignore the presence of an audience before the footlights. His performance of "Richelieu" is quiet and natural, and only slightly boisterous when the crafty minister defies and defeats his enemies. Miss Mary McVicker, who has during the week received willing tributes from the hands of large and appreciative audiences, for her admirable impersonations, ably supported Mr. Booth as "Julie." Her "Julie" was a chaste performance, and manifested that the youthful histrionic has given earnest study to her profession, which in a brief time will develop in her one of the very foremost American actresses. But the performance of "Richelieu" last evening was sadly marred by the bad acting of some of the stock company. Mr. Bates did not do either himself or the author justice as "De Mauprat," for we know he is capable of doing better. In hurried speeches he stammered frequently, and he was inclined to rant too much. "De Barradas," in the hands of Mr. Laurens, fared as bad as the original is supposed to have done at the hands of "Richelieu." Mr. Laurens lacks clearness of enunciation, and has a hesitancy in his speech that unfits him for the stage, and these defects were never more apparent than last night. Again, he is poor in elocution, and has but little grace in action. Last night, however, he was not up in his part. Mr. Cook misinterpreted the character of "King Louis," and gave his audience a touch of "Capt. Kyd" or some such melo-dramatic hero. Mr. Cook is always up in his part, and as a heavy man will do very well, but as a representative of such characters as the youthful "King Louis," he cannot find favor with an audience. His declaration of love to "Julie" was in such a tone of voice as to provoke laughter from the audience, and it seemed difficult for "Julie" to restrain a smile while putting on a frown at the proposal. With the above exceptions, the support of the company was fair.

To-night, Mr. Booth will repeat his excellent impersonation of "Hamlet."

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—Manager C. D. Hess, formerly of the Opera House, this city, but now of the Crosby Opera House, Chicago, we learn, has secured the Academy of Music, Liberty street, for a short theatrical season.

Court Proceedings.

QUARTER SESSIONS—JUDGE STOWE.

Court met at the usual hour yesterday morning.

CROSS SUITS.

A cross suit on a charge of assault and battery between Rachel Blackson (colored) and Catharine O'Brion was first tried. The difficulty occurred at the house of Mr. Rodgers, where the last named party did family work. Mrs. Blackson visited the house of Mr. Rodgers, on Webster street, and the two prosecutors became involved in a fight which was concluded on the sidewalk. The jury found a verdict of not guilty in both cases, requiring the prosecutor in each case to pay the costs.

WIFE DESERTION.

Jamet Branson (colored) was called up on a charge of wife desertion, on oath of his wife, Hester Branson. It was alleged that he had refused to contribute to her support since February, 1867. The defendant was discharged on the ground that the offense was committed in Ohio, and the Court had no jurisdiction.

LARCENY.

Emanuel Hasking, a night machinist in the employ of the Pennsylvania railroad, was arraigned on a charge of larceny on an information made by D. M. Watt, Superintendent's clerk. It appeared that the company had at different times missed brasses and partially finished work, which disappeared in a mysterious manner.

It was alleged that the property about which the suit was commenced, was stolen from the round house of the Pennsylvania Railroad at the outer depot in the ninth ward, on the 27th of August last. It was valued at $25.

A Mr. Shafer, one of the master mechanics at the shop, was sworn, and testified that the company had frequently missed brasses similar to those stolen.

Several other witnesses were sworn, among them two railroad detectives, and it appeared from their testimony that the defendant had taken a quantity of brass and iron and sold it at Mrs. Given's tobacco store on Penn street.

The case was submitted without argument, and Judge Stowe delivered the charge to the jury. A verdict of guilty was rendered.

After the verdict had been rendered, a large number of witnesses, most of whom had worked with the defendant, testified as to his previous good character. Sentence deferred.

PLEAD GUILTY.

George Hoover plead guilty to an indictment charging him with stealing a number of tools from the carpenter shop of Messrs. Trimble & Co., Fifth ward, Allegheny. He said he was intoxicated at the time, and that he did not know what he was doing. He was sentenced to undergo an imprisonment of one year in the Western Penitentiary.

FELONIOUS ASSAULT AND BATTERY.

John Hensler was arraigned for committing a felonious assault and battery on the person of F. Barclay.

The prosecuting witness testified that he resided in Duquesne Borough, and on the evening of the 29th of May last, and was passing along a street in that place, when he was assaulted by the defendant, who stabbed him in the back, inflicting a severe wound, near the spinal column. He said Hensler had offered him one hundred dollars to settle the matter. A large number of witnesses were examined by the prosecution, and it appeared that Barclay was in ill health at the time of the assault, and did not recover from the effects of his injuries for several weeks. On trial.

COMPLAINT IN REFERENCE TO A TIPSTAVE.

During the trial of the above case the proceedings were interrupted by a complaint made by Dr. Jno. Kirker, one of the witnesses, that Warren McIlvaine, one of the tipstaves, had treated him in an ungentlemanly manner.

The Doctor was sworn, and said Dr. J. P. Alcorn and himself were sitting in the jury box next the door, and McIlvaine told them to leave the box as the jury was coming in, and as he was about leaving pushed him rudely. Mr. McIlvaine came into Court afterwards and claimed that no rudeness had been displayed by him, and he had simply done his duty.

Dr. J. P. Alcorn was sworn, and thought from what he saw the tipstave had acted rudely. Several other witnesses were examined, and testified that the course of the tipstave was justifiable, and no unnecessary rudeness was displayed.

Judge Stowe said in deciding the matter that he did not see enough in the case to justify even a reprimand. If there was he would not hesitate to give it or even suspend the tipstave. But a great many outsiders often come inside the bar and it was necessary that the officers should be strict. Mr. McIlwaine was one of the most prompt and efficient officers of the court, and he thought in this case there was no occasion for a reprimand.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS—JUDGE MELLON.

In the case of Andrews & Armstrong vs. John Knoelder, reported yesterday, the jury found for the defendants.

On motion of T. M. Marshall, Esq., Joseph Forsythe, Esq., was admitted to practice at the bar of this court.

The next case taken up was that of Josiah Reymer & Co. vs. R. Lamberton & Co. This was a feigned issue to determine the ownership of a quantity of oil, claimed by both parties. The jury found for the defendants.

TRIAL LIST.

The following is the trial list for to-day:

No. 113. Owners of S. B. "Dolphin" vs. Boyd.
No. 114. Bost vs. Kramer.
No. 115. Obinger vs. Kramer.
No. 116. Bost vs. Kramer.
No. 117. Boyd vs. Owners S. B. "Dolphin."
No. 118. Lawson vs. Edmonds.
No. 119. King vs. Wm. Oliver, et. al.

Central Board of Education.

The Central Board of Education met Thursday evening, October 10th, 1867.

Present—Messrs. Crawford, Getty, Lowe, McCook, Nobbs, Sergeant and Wilson.

Mr. Wilson was appointed President, pro tem.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

The monthly report of the Principal of the High School, Principal of the Colored School, and of the Secretary were read, and received and filed.

Warrants were authorized in payment of the following bills:

Jno. Scott, extra stone work	$158 00
W. R. Lowe, benches	35 00
Chronicle, advertising	6 00
Price & Sims, chair pedestals	35 00
J. L. Thompson, brushes	13 13
T. B. Cook, carpenter work	6 90
Roberts & Sherrett, tin and sheet iron work	4 30

Mr. President Brush appeared.

On motion, J. R. Newman was elected Collector of the Third ward.

On motion adjourned.

The Nicolson Pavement.

Mr. Allen, the contractor, has a force of men now at work preparing the ground for the new pavement on Wood street. He will begin to lay the pavement at the mouth of Wood street, and work gradually up to Fifth. We are requested by the City Regulator, Mr. Moore, to direct the attention of property holders on that street to the importance of making whatever connections they may desire to make with the sewer, and gas and water mains, before the pavement is laid. The cost of doing this work after the pavement shall have been laid will be very much greater than now, since it will be necessary, in order to make an excavation for a pipe, or an opening of any kind, to remove a very considerable portion of the pavement. Parties, therefore, who have property abutting on that portion of the street to be covered with the Nicolson pavement, will save considerable money by making all necessary connections before the street is finally closed.

Probable Identification of Stolen Property.

The particulars in regard to the sale of two horses and a barouche, at Greensburg, by two young men, under suspicious circumstances, were published on Wednesday. Several days before, an establishment answering, so far as known, the description of the one sold at Greensburg, was stolen from Mr. Thomas Lennon, a livery-stable keeper of Erie, Pa., who hired it to two young men named George Blessing and Frank Graham, under the condition that it was to be returned that evening. They went away with two girls and were not seen afterwards. Detective Ferguson, of Erie, visited Greensburg yesterday, and it is supposed the property will be identified as that of Mr. Lennon.

DANGEROUS PLACES.—The bridges that cross the railroad on Ridge and Marshall streets, Allegheny, are in a very dangerous condition, the planks having become rotten and full of holes. It is only a few evenings since Mr. William Graff, of Graff, Byers & Co., whilst crossing the Ridge street bridge had his horse's foot caught in one of these traps, the horse thrown and severely injured, the buggy broken, and Mr. Graff injured himself. A few more accidents like this will result in an action for damages against the city, whose business it is to attend to this matter.

CATHOLIC CHURCH DEDICATED.—The new Catholic church of St. Theresa, at Perryville, was dedicated on Sunday last, by the Rt. Rev. Bishop Domenec. The Bishop was assisted at the solemn ceremonies by Very Rev. J. Stelbel, Rev. Father Shell, of Sharpsburg, and Father Mullinger. After the ceremonies of the dedication, the Bishop preached an appropriate sermon to a large congregation. Mass was sung by Rev. Father Shell, and at the Gospel Very Rev. J. Stelbel preached an eloquent sermon in German.

INFORMATION WANTED.—The Clerk of the Courts, Mr. John Brown, is in receipt of a communication, inquiring the whereabouts of William C. Beck, late a Lieutenant in Company H, One Hundred and Seventh Pennsylvania Volunteers, who, it is supposed, can prove the death of Herman Forster, who was killed at Hatcher's Run. The widow is making an application for pension, and as she is a very deserving woman, any person having the address of Lieutenant Beck will confer a great favor by leaving word with John G. Brown, Esq., at the Court House.

MUSICAL INSTITUTE.—A few months since the Mozart Musical Institute was started in this city, and we are glad to learn that the number of pupils already enrolled guarantees its success. It is the first enterprise of the kind ever established here, and our citizens take a just pride in according it a generous support. Special care is devoted to those wishing to fit themselves for teaching, and certificates of ability will be given to such as fully prepare themselves for this important work. Miss C. A. Moody, the Principal, can be seen at the rooms of the Institute, No. 45 Fifth street where all desired information can be obtained.

From the Sewing Machine Committee.

The following letter which explains itself, we publish with pleasure:

NEW WILMINGTON, PA., October 9, 1867.

Editors Evening Chronicle, Pittsburgh, Pa.,

SIR:—Noticing in a recent issue of your paper an error in the report of Sewing Machines at the late State Fair, as rendered by the agent of the Weed Machine, I beg leave to make the following correction, and would also state that as a committee our aim was to render honest justice to all that came under our notice.

After comparing the various machines as regards simplicity, ease in operating, and variety of work performed, we made our report in full on the last page of Book No. 45, and classed them as follows:

1st. Wheeler & Wilson,
2d. Weed,
3d. Empire,
4th. Wilcox & Gibbs,
Grover & Baker and Florence declining to be noticed.

In making the Wheeler & Wilson first, and the work done by it the best, no injustice was done to the other machines on exhibition.

Yours truly, MRS. E. M. BLACK,
Clerk of Committee on Sewing Machines.

Duff's College Evening Classes.

We are requested to state that Mr. C. C. Cochran, general book-keeper to Messrs. B. A. Fahnestock's Son & Co., of this city, and one of the best practical accountants and most accomplished penman in the city, has resumed his former position upon the staff of teachers in Duff's Mercantile College. This will make Messrs. Duff & Son's corps of instructors, in point of practical ability, the strongest in the country. The three Messrs. Duff and Mr. Cochran being all known as the best practical business accountants in the city. Mr. Cochran being specially engaged for the evening class, he will be glad to see any of his old friends who desire to avail themselves of his services as instructor of book-keeping, penmanship, etc. Clerks, mechanics, and others engaged in business during the day will obtain the same instruction in the evening session as during the day. Terms, etc., made known at the College, No. 37 Fifth street.—Morning Post.

RELIGIOUS.

☞ CHURCH DEDICATION.
UNION M. E. CHURCH, corner of Ohio Avenue and Manchester street, Allegheny city (late Borough of Manchester), will be dedicated by Bishop M. SIMPSON, assisted by other eminent Ministers of the M. E. Church, on next SABBATH, October 13. Preaching at 10½ A. M., 3½ P. M. and 7 P. M. Ministers and members of other congregations are cordially invited.

The Daily Commercial

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1867.

THE COMMERCIAL is the largest daily paper in the State, and gives daily one-fourth more reading than any other paper in Pittsburgh. It is the only Pittsburgh paper that uses the telegraph liberally, gives full market reports, and all the news of the day.

THE result of the elections is construed in Wall street as diminishing the probabilities of impeachment, and gold and stocks had a declining symptom.

AN immediate reconstruction of the Cabinet rests on something better than mere rumor. Whether Mr. McCULLOCH will go or stay is the principal question, and one of much importance. The President is understood to be nearer the point of removing him than he was a week ago, and the opposition to him is encouraged. We have reason to believe that Mr. McCULLOCH himself is not certain he will not have to go.

THE Democracy will delude itself with the idea that verdicts have been rendered in their favor, while, in fact, they are simple, but emphatic rebukes of Radicalism. The party that, as a party, was disloyal, through a war threatening the dissolution of the Union and the destruction of the Government, will not easily be forgotten or forgiven.

So says the New York Commercial. We credit the Democrats with possession of the sagacity to perceive that the recent elections indicate nothing permanent in their favor. To men of intelligence they bear no such intrepretation. To the Republicans the elections are instructive—not destructive, and they will make the Republicans stronger by showing them what begets weakness.

COL. FORNEY says, "defeated but not dismayed." Nothing is truer. It takes a clap of thunder to clear the atmosphere. In stringing together a column of glittering generalities, the Colonel drops this practical remark: "Let the errors which in a large degree assisted yesterday's catastrophe be instantly repaired." Had he only told us in what the said errors consisted, there would have been some value in the admonition. There is time yet to do that. Not that most of persons don't have pretty clear ideas what errors have been committed, but some may be curious to know what they who make frantic appeals to reform things think ought to be reformed.

WHAT PENNSYLVANIA WILL DO.

The Democrats have a right to rejoice; but if they are wise they will not delude themselves with the idea that they have won a victory in this State, whether SHARSWOOD has five or ten thousand, or none at all, the fact will remain that he has received a less number of votes than CLYMER did last fall. The simple and only truth is, no Republican has changed to the Democrats—a few thousand in the State did not vote, and the result is as nearly as possible a draw game. There is nothing in the canvass or the result that presents a hope for the State by the Democrats, or should cause a single moment's depression on the part of the Republicans. From the elections on Tuesday last, certain things can be predicted, and one of them is that Pennsylvania, next fall, will give for the Republican Presidential electors an overwhelming majority. The present result clears the way for such a result then. If the Democrats are wise they will perceive this, and moderate their expectations. As many a time during the war was it the case, this defeat will insure a victory on the next trial. The reasons why this will be so are obvious.

EQUAL SUFFRAGE IN OHIO.

Our friends in Ohio are expected to explain how they happened to be so wide from the mark in predicting what the result in that State would be. Two days before the election a prediction, as coming from Judge CHASE, was published, to the effect that HAYES would be elected by not less than twenty-five thousand and that the Suffrage Amendment would be carried, but by something less. It turns out that HAYES is elected by about three thousand only, and that the Amendment has "gone up" to the tune of forty or fifty thousand. The views of Judge CHASE are understood to have embodied the expectations of the leading Republicans generally. Here was a miscalculation that justifies the demand for an explanation.

The Republicans of Ohio courageously proclaimed for the universal suffrage amendment to the State Constitution, and ably advocated its adoption. That it was mainly this that weighed them down, is scarcely to be doubted. If such is the fact, it is far better to concede it and accept the instruction it conveys, than to attempt evasive excuses. As an admonitory revelation of public opinion on the question, the result will prove instructive not in Ohio alone. On the Western Reserve, the old Anti-Slavery district, the amendment met with a poor support. The complaint of the Republican press before the election was that the lifetime Abolitionists of the old Whig stamp were giving the measure a weak support. The complaint appears to have been well grounded, not only as to the Reserve, where, of all places in the world, the amendment should have been sustained, but the State at large. The Republicans of Ohio have made a deliberate trial and failed. Their wealth of thirty thousand majority has been lost in the attempt to engraft equal suffrage upon the State Constitution, and that, too, when the opposition was marshaled by such men as VALLANDIGHAM and PENDLETON, whom the people of the State appear to prefer to equal suffrage. If this is what the result in Ohio means it is sufficiently instructive without comment.

THE CITADEL UNHARMED.

The election does not change the nature of things. Of some things in the political arena it does not change the position. The interests and the laws of the country are the same that they were before it occurred. And unless there should be treachery and usurpation at the head of the Executive Department of the Government, the maintenance of those interests and the administration of those laws will go on, without let or hindrance, as before. We refer particularly to the legalized process for the restoration of the seceded States to the Union. Should the election encourage latent treachery to become more open and active; in other words, should it stimulate the President to obstruct the laws which he is bound by oath and duty to execute, it will be a consequence such as has never yet followed an election, and an interpretation such as never has been put upon the meaning of one. If the laws are unacceptable to a majority of the people, there is a proper method for annulling them. Obstruction by fraud, violence or formal neglect, is a method which the people of this country have never yet approved.

The central plank in the Republican policy has been, and is now, the restoration of the seceded States to the Union, on just and proper conditions. This has been impeded by the President, and the Democratic party have instigated and indorsed his course in this respect. The laws of Congress have been indorsed by the Republican party. Until repealed or modified, their execution must continue to be the duty of the President, whether he shall perform it or not. The election, therefore, does not legitimately affect the prospects of that just and safe reconstruction which has been the aim of the Republican party. There is no alternative or evasion, but in a gross dereliction of official duty in the Executive.

As to the future prospects of the great central question, they must be determined by the voice of the people in future elections. Next year, in the election of a new Congress and a new President, the opportunity will be legally presented for an expression of the people's will on the subject. But next year we anticipate that expression in favor of the Republican doctrine of reconstruction, on the basis of fidelity to the Union. We are not at all despondent in consequence of the defeat that we have had on questions foisted into this canvass, which are not connected with the main chance. Last year we recollect after their seventh defeat, the Democrats rallied their hopes immediately after election. After glorious victories for seven years we hope the Republican party has too much vitality and too much spirit to give way to despondency, and especially, as the present election does not decide against them the issue which they have deemed and declared so often to be the principal one for which they have fought and voted, namely, freedom, the Union, equal rights and a just representation on the basis of men, and not chattel property, in the Federal Government.

CORRUPTING PAPERS.

The corrupting influence of a certain class of papers, which are said to be issued in large numbers and circulated in the country, is unquestionable. They have set up as censors of morals, and have adopted means for collecting all the scandal of the country, which they expose in their columns with far more likelihood of spreading corruption among their readers than of correcting it in their victims. For the purposes they have in view, they are under the necessity of organizing a corps of eavesdroppers, gossips, libelers, ramifying through all parts of the land, who are expected to discover, invent or manufacture scandal in proportion to the pay they get for it. The convergent streams of vileness and lies are poured into one or another of these Police Papers, and thence are issued for the people's reading.

We cannot conceive how a young man or woman, who weekly holds an hour's or an evening's intimacy with such writings and such subjects, can well escape some pollution of mind or some damage of conscience, or some loss of self-respect. Familiarity with reading of this kind inflames passion, teaches the arts of seduction and other crimes, and hardens the heart against the claims of virtue. To this cause we attribute no small share of the increase of crime in these times. It is but a verifying of the exclamation of the great observer of human conduct:

"How oft the sight of means to do ill deeds Makes ill deeds done!"

Colorado.

There are some features, besides gold, belonging to this distant interior of the United States which entitle it to notice, at least as a subject of speculative knowledge. We cannot say, however, that they present any very strong attractions to the comfortable dwellers in the old States, to make that lofty golden country their future home. The great back-bone of the continent runs through the Territory, forming the water shed between the oceans. But although its mean elevation entitles it to be so reconsidered, yet it does not contain the highest isolated peaks and ranges of the mountains. Consequently, its climate is the less rigorous, and vegetation extends to a greater height than in the vicinity of ranges which are covered with perpetual snow.

Owing, however, to the lack of rain, the country cannot be favorable for general tillage. What rain falls is speedily lost in the loose, silicious soil, which lacks a clayey subsoil for its retention. Along the streams where artificial irrigation is employed, crops of grain and vegetables are raised abundantly and of good quality. The growth of grass even at high elevations offers inducements for the raising of stock, particularly of sheep. The climate and the abundant pasturage are both favorable for this kind of farming.

One of the peculiar and curious characteristics of the physical geography of Colorado, is the chain of valleys called Parks, which interlie the mountains. These are level or rolling surfaces, watered by numerous streams, some of which have egress eastward or westward, and others of which empty into lakes which have no visible outlet. The St. Louis Park has forty-seven streams flowing down from the Sierra Mojava, and the Sierra Madre, twenty-three of which are lost in the reservoir lakes, while the others form tributaries to the river Del Norte. In these Parks there is a good growth of grass, while pine timber covers heavily the slopes of the mountains adjacent.

The gold abounding in Colorado is of course the most conspicuous attraction to adventurous settlers. Large quantities of the precious metal have been obtained, and large sums have been spent, in vain, in experimental efforts by individuals and companies. Science, skill and experience may be made available, to ensure richer results than have yet been achieved by an imperfect method of working the mines. Coal is found of good quality and extensive in quantity. Iron, copper and silver have been discovered in several localities.

The resources of all kinds in this view territory, will be ascertained and brought into available use by the great interoceanic communications that will traverse it, the Union Pacific Railroad from Omaha to San Francisco, and the Union Pacific Railway, Eastern Division, from Wyandotte, Kansas, running south of the former, and destined to San Francisco and the Gulf of California.

Napoleon and the Church.

Napoleon is not ready to cut himself loose from the Roman Catholic Church, says a Paris letter: The Church party is necessary to the Emperor, for after all it is the only true conservative party in France—the only one upon which he can positively rely. All his other supporters are liable to fly off in a tangent, but the clerical party, so long as he holds true to them, will sustain him. And this is why the Emperor was ready to send an expedition to crush out rebellion in Rome. Were Napoleon really the great man which some of his admirers claim him to be, with all the elements of discontent about him, with a people clamoring for liberties which time and again have been promised but never granted them,—with a people the growing importance of whose commercial and industrial interests lead them to wish for peace and quiet, while his uncertain, doubtful policy is constantly keeping them in fear of war—did he possess the greatness and courage and patriotism which his extreme friends say he does, he would grant France her so much desired internal liberties, and at the next general elections go to the people upon this issue saying to them, "If you don't want me with these, make some better arrangements for your Government." But his threatened Roman expedition proves that Napoleon has not sufficient faith yet in the people of France, and that he still feels the necessity of the clerical aid and influence to keep him in undisturbed power.

THE President, as a preliminary step on the defensive in the impeachment matter, is preparing to make the point that certain Senators have prejudged the case and cannot try him. As to this, the Tribune makes the following point: "It will be seen at a glance that the declaration by a Senator in favor of impeachment by the House of Representatives, an independent body, is no more a declaration of the guilt than of the innocence of the President. It is merely the statement of the Senator's opinion that, whether guilty or innocent, the official conduct of the President demands investigation. This the House initiates, and then, and not till then, the trial begins. The President, with his usual genius for muddling everything, confounds impeachment with trial, and sends messengers to the four points of the compass to procure evidence of what nobody disputes. Suppose Messrs. Howard, Thayer, Nye, Sumner and other Senators do think that the President should be impeached. They cannot impeach him any more than we can—they can only try him when he is impeached, and they have as much right to express their views of the duties of the House of Representatives as we have."

A PARIS correspondent writes, that at matinees white foulard skirts are looped up with flowers. China tea roses are most liked, but field flowers and wheat ears are lovely on the young. Loose jackets are trimmed round in the same way, but on all these occasions the same flowers are worn in the ears and on the head. The only room left on that organ is to be covered this winter with a puff of flowers or diadem, but Etruscan gold and imitation Etruscan gold is put on bonnets. A gold band above the forehead, or anywhere, seems indispensable. A great deal of lace paper is coming out this week. Brocaded lace patterns on silks are much thought of. Lace is also being sewn round black overskirts having a maize or cerise underpetticoat. It is very rich and effective.

WE have said several times this is the year for paying off old scores at the election. The Philadelphia Enquirer elucidates this as follows: The late law allowing colored persons to ride in the city railway cars also had its effect upon bigoted and prejudiced minds. All these unfavorable circumstances were skillfully charged by the opposition upon the Republican party; and while the Democratic party polled all its voters, a large number of Republicans voted for some of their candidates. Throughout the State the liquor prohibition question had its influence, and the result is seen in diminished Republican majorities.

THE Boston Traveller, speaking of the business of that city, says: Our New England trade, as a general thing, is not in a prosperous condition. Some great branches of industry—such as shipbuilding—are much depressed. The mining interests are not successful, and many branches of manufacturing are very dull; and at present the great fishing interests look far from prosperous; our farmers are not growing rich very fast and are generally small consumers of imported goods.

ANOTHER RAILROAD TO PHILADELPHIA.

Important to Manufacturers and Merchants.

One of the most important bills passed by the last Legislature was "An Act to Incorporate the Caledonia Iron, Land and Railroad Company."

By referring to the provisions of this act—a synopsis of which we present below to our readers—it will be seen that the Company possesses some of the most liberal privileges that can be conferred on a railroad corporation. Among others of its franchises, the company is authorized by its original charter to hold sixteen thousand acres of land, and by a supplementary act, passed at the close of the session, the company is further authorized to hold four thousand additional acres, making in all twenty thousand acres, with authority "to mortgage, lease, sell or otherwise dispose of the same, or any part thereof." The company is also unrestricted as to the amount of capital stock, and has ample authority to construct "a railroad or railroads with branches," from their lands "to connect with any other railroad now or hereafter to be built."

It is believed by the corporators of the company—among whom we find the names of several of our citizens—that every privilege and power necessary to the construction of another railroad from Pittsburgh to Philadelphia, are embodied in their charter, and that an opportunity is now presented to the opponents of the Pennsylvania Railroad monopoly, whereby a competing route may be opened to connect our city with Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York, by the construction of a track from Connellsville to Harrisburg—where connections may be made with the Reading and Lebanon Valley Railroads—not exceeding two hundred miles in length.

The importance of this charter cannot be over-estimated by our citizens, and the building of the road by the route indicated will produce the most happy results, in solving nearly all of the difficult railroad problems and troubles under which our manufacturers and business men have been languishing and suffering during the last fifteen years.

The corporators of the company intend visiting our city on Tuesday next, the 15th inst., to confer with the people of Western Pennsylvania on this most interesting question. The Hon. Thaddeus Stevens will be present, if his health will permit, and we trust that every citizen interested in developing the resources of this section of our State, and in favor of a new outlet to tide-water will also be present, and by words and deeds of substantial encouragement, give practical assurance of their sympathy in every effort looking to a happy riddance from the power and influence of the great monopoly.

Below we give a synopsis of the act:—

Section first names the corporators, among whom are Thaddeus Stevens, G. Dawson Coleman, J. D. Cameron, Wm. Colder, J. W. Ahl, D. V. Ahl, S. G. Merrick, C. S. Kauffman, Henry McCormick, Edward McPherson, J. K. Moorhead and John P. Glass; also fixes the capital stock at $300,000, with power to increase the same to such an amount as may be deemed necessary.

Section second designates a Board of nine Directors to manage the business of the company.

Section third confers authority to sue and be sued, and to make all needful rules and regulations for the company.

Section fourth authorizes the appointment of any Director as agent or officer of the company.

Section fifth authorizes the company "to take, receive and hold in fee simple, or for any less estate, or upon lease, lands and mineral rights with their appurtenances, not exceeding in the whole sixteen thousand (16,000) acres at any one time, with power to mortgage, sell, lease or otherwise dispose of the same, or any part thereof, and to execute all necessary conveyances, and the said company shall have the right to manufacture and prepare for market lumber and articles produced therefrom, and to provide and open mines, to mine and prepare for market coal, iron ore, limestone, fire clay and other minerals, or to use and consume the same, and to manufacture iron and fire bricks, and to transport all said articles, or any of them, to market, and dispose of the same, and to do all such other acts and things as may be necessary to the prosecution of said business, and also to make all such improvements and erections as a successful prosecution of said business may require."

Section sixth confers authority to "construct and operate a railroad, or railroads, with branches, from any part of their lands to connect with the Caledonia and South Mountain Railroad Company, or its branches, or with any other railroad now or hereafter to be built."

Section seventh provides for transferring stock and limiting dividends to actual profits.

Section eighth authorizes subscriptions to capital stock to be made in real and personal estate; also authorizes issue of bonds, with or without coupons, bearing interest not exceeding seven and three-tenths per centum, but no bonds to be issued for a less amount than one hundred dollars.

The act supplementary to the foregoing authorizes the purchase of any lands and property for the purpose specified in the original act, not exceeding four thousand additional acres.

The Cause of the Rupture with Abyssinia.

Mr. Charles Beeke, in a letter to The Times, says: "The real cause of Theodore's displeasure was not so much that Counsel Cameron returned in June, 1863, without the so anxiously expected answer from the Queen, as that instead of waiting first at Massowah, or at all events returning direct to Bogos, he had been in the interval in the neighboring Egyptian provinces. In the Emperor's own words—'He went to the Turks, who do not love me. * * He stayed with them some time and returned to me.' The explanation of this is that while in Bogos Counsel Cameron received from the Foreign Office a dispatch containing certain communications, which, under the circumstances detailed in my work, the 'British Captives in Abyssinia,' I had made to the Board of Trade in the months of November and December, 1862, respecting the expediency of adopting measures for the development of British commerce in Ethiopia, and which as I was informed by the Secretary of the Board, in a letter dated January 10th, 1863, had been referred by Her Majesty's Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs for the report of Her Majesty's Consul at Massowah. In consequence of the orders thus conveyed to him, Consul Cameron went to the Egyptian provinces of Taka and Kalabat, to see about cotton and trade and so forth, as he wrote from Kedarif on May 25th, 1863, in a letter quoted in my work, or, as he has since written from his prison at Magdala, in a letter dated the 13th of November, 1866, which has been duly recorded. 'At Bogos I got a letter from the Foreign Office, directing me to report on the comparative merits of Souakin and Massowah as the seat of a consulate; also to report on the trade of Souakin. It was this which led me to the trading stations of Cassala and Matamma.' This, then, is what the Emperor meant when he accused Cameron of 'going to the Turks,' and this it is that poor Cameron himself alludes to when he says, in his letter of the 25th of May, 1866, to Mr. Henry D. Seymour, M. P., printed in page 55 of the Abyssinian Blue-book: 'I feel somewhat like the lad in the Arabian Nights, who made the cheese-cakes with pepper, and found that in so doing he had committed a great political offense. I have thus shown what was Consul Cameron's primary offense.' The neglect of the British Government to reply to the Emperor's letter, the abandonment of the Christian Abyssinians at Jerusalem, and other grievances, aggravated his displeasure, and led to the imprisonment of our consul and other Europeans. Still, all this appeared to have been condemned on Mr. Rassam's arrival with a friendly letter from the Queen. What led to the subsequent imprisonment of Her Majesty's envoy and the whole party is a totally different question. I regret to say that a letter from me, which appeared in the Times on September 14, 1865, by drawing forth Earl Russell's ill-advised dispatch of October 5 following, became, without any fault of mine, the primary cause of the misfortunes which have since ensued, as I purpose showing on another occasion."

SINCE the gossip excited by Jacob, the Zouave magnetiser, has subsided, the talk now in Paris is about the masked man, the champion wrestler, who is there, throwing the glove to all the muscle men; he affects gentle blood and high position, but people who have been taking notes say that his fingers are too short, and that his nails do declare against him, being neither well formed nor nicely trimmed. One of the last reports is that the mysterious athlete is brother to one of the prefets of France. Since Olympian games are no longer sport for gentlemen, it seems doubtful if the brother of a high functionary would make a spectacle of himself to please the groundlings, when by the bare stroke of a pen he might be first secretary of a government bureau.

The New York Herald has made the sharpest commentary on Mrs. Lincoln in advertising her poverty, and calling on the public, especially the negroes, to send in contributions for her relief, and now in publishing notes enclosing $1 and $5 each for her benefit. One comes from a freedman with a single dollar, and this remark: "I would send more, but I am a poor preacher of the gospel and am not doing anything more. I was a slave in Virginia till this war, and Mr. Lincoln made me a free man."

A GENERAL order has been given by the Commissioner to the examiners in the Patent Office to take up no cases which reach their rooms after October 30, until every case has been disposed of which was filed prior to that date. The examiners have volunteered to labor two hours extra every day this month in order to bring up the work. This will be welcome tidings to the inventors of the country.

GENERAL INTELLIGENCE.

The intelligent directors of the work on the Hoosac Tunnel are firm in the belief that the enterprise will be successfully accomplished within five years. Much of the labor and expense of the past has been a necessary result of the newness of this kind of work in our country. And now that the necessity of experimenting is over, the work can be carried forward more easily and with less expense than at any former period.

There is no epidemic among the Indians. Those who died during September were generally victims of consumption, which is common among the half civilized Indians and half breeds.

Says a New York letter: Mrs. Lincoln's wardrobe was again visited by many ladies, this morning, at the auctioneer's rooms, in Broadway, but for some reason or other, none of them were inclined to purchase. The prevailing opinion seems to be that Mrs. Lincoln values the goods at a figure altogether above the current market prices, and that in order to dispose of them at private sale, she will have to consent to a material abatement. Failing in that, however, the entire lot will be disposed of at auction, on the 30th inst.

In France steel boilers are coming into use for locomotives. Twelve express engines, with steel boilers, are employed on one railway leading out of Paris, fifteen on another, and several on other roads.

PERSONAL.

—All the critics unite in doing homage to Ristori's genius in the new play of Marie Antoinette, which is the theatrical novelty for the moment, but they groan in the spirit over the malancholy fact that her performance is not over till a quarter past one o'clock in the morning. The audience, say the wags, are expected to bring their breakfast with them in the future.

—The papers in Chicago, where Mrs. Lincoln lives, do not hesitate to speak plainly about her. For instance, the following from the Republican: "Unfortunately, the facts are, Mrs. Lincoln is not sought, and does not receive company; and, so far as can be ascertained, Mrs. Lincoln had ample means with which to live as comfortably and in as good style as any sensible woman—though President Lincoln's widow—would desire or need to receive company. We do not regard it as indicative of any want of respect or reverence for the memory of Abraham Lincoln on the part of the people that his widow, who seems to be wanting in all the true instincts and delicacy which belong to worthy woman, is not furnished with all the money she may desire to spend or squander. Distasteful as it is to write in this way of any woman, and much more of the widow of a man endeared to the people of the country by the memory of his most eminent services and martyrdom, the truth is better said, and plainly. The people have no sympathy for a woman who has neither sufficient respect for the memory of her husband, nor for herself and her family, to restrain her from seeking such notoriety as the past few days have given her."

—Mrs. E. Oakes Smith, in a letter to the Evening Mail concerning young Ketchum, now in Sing Sing, says: It is said the poor man guilty of a tithe of the wrong-doing of this wealthy young man, would be compelled to serve out his period of condemnation with no interference of sympathy or mercy from the public. This may be true, for obscurity has its penalties as well as dissipation; but, the higher the position, the higher the prerogative to notice; the higher the culture, the greater the shame and suffering for wrong-doing; the finer the elements of character, the greater is the probability that a severe lesson will be more deeply taken to heart. As his case involves more, it ought to be met from a higher standpoint. There is more to save in this young man than in ordinary cases. The more there is to reward our mercy, the greater should be our beneficence.

—The Queen of Portugal has ordered a robe from Paris, which is described as a white satin skirt under golden gauze, looped up with fuschias and gold roses in a filagree. The same ornaments in the hair, on the neck and in the ears. She has ordered the same in white silk gauze and white filagree. The Grand Duchesses of Russia have had fancy costumes sent them also. One is renaissance, a red velvet, white satin and pearls; the other a Watteau, black velvet trimmings on white silk, with pink satin and roses, with a bunch of roses in the hair nestling among blonde.

A German newspaper says: "Two years ago Mr. Christian Segemeyer became father of his fifty-eighth child. His first wife gave birth to twenty-three, of which six were twins and eleven single-born children. Of these fifty-eight children twenty-eight are living, all being daughters, and the man has never been sick, and enjoys good health, as do his children."

—"A woman's appeal" in behalf of Mrs. Lincoln, is made through the Chicago Tribune. It concludes as follows: There is a son who inherits the virtues of the father and whom we would all shield with parental affection, if we could. The comments of the press, which he must silently bear, pierce his heart. Though in justice to the Republic, we may not entirely withhold our disapproval of recent acts, we say at the same time to him, we love and respect you, and so long as you walk in your integrity, no act of another can rob you of our warmest affection.

—The Cunard steamship Java, which left Boston Monday, took out six missionaries of the American Board, on their way to their respective foreign fields. Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Saunders return to their old station in Ceylon, accompanied by Miss H. A. Townsend, of Iowa; Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Lowry are going to Syria and Miss Mary G. Hollister, of the last class in the Mt. Holyoke Seminary, is on her way to Aintab, in the Central Turkey Mission.

—Madame Sophie Despau has lately died near New Orleans, at the age of 110. She is the aunt of Mrs. General Gaines, and it was by her testimony that the great estate so long litigated was adjudged to this latter lady. That suit turned on the validity of a marriage between a sister of Madame Despau and Daniel Clark. This sister, Zulime Carriere, was married in New Orleans in 1796, to Des Grange, a French nobleman, who soon after subsided into a barkeeper or syrup maker. Some years after Des Grange proved to have been already married, and about the same time an attachment sprung up between her and Daniel Clark. The attachment resulted in a marriage, according to Mme. Sophie Despau and another sister, and, according to all, in the birth of Mrs. Myra Clark Gaines. Mme. Despau, in her evidence in the Gaines case, testified that she was present when the marriage ceremony was performed in Philadelphia, present with a third sister, and it was upon their evidence that the alleged ceremony rested, for the priest who officiated subsequently went to Ireland, the church was burned down and the records destroyed. What added still more to the complication of the case was that Zulime Carriere Des Grange Clark was subsequently united to Dr. Gardette, and this during the lifetime of Clark.

—General Prim, the Spanish revolutionist, was a passenger (incog.) by the French steamer Pereire, which arrived at New York Monday. Gentlemen who have had conversations with him as personal friends say he preserves a strict reticence concerning the business which has brought him to this country, but hints are thrown out that it has reference to Mexico. Prim is known to many persons in this city, who respect him for his qualities both as a soldier and a man. He speaks English fluently, and is better informed on American politics and politicians than most foreigners, even in his station in life, are expected to be.

DR. CHAUSSIER'S EMPRESS.
LA COMPOSITION IMPERATRICE, POUR LES CHEVEUX.

It has long been known that the hair, by mental exertion, by excitement, by disease, and imperfect circulation, loses its vitality turns gray and falls off. That eminent French Chemist, Dr. CHAUSSIER, has provided a complete antidote, and at the same time a beautiful dressing for the hair, durable and finely perfumed. Remember, this is the finest article for the toilet that has ever been presented to the public. It is not a Dye. It will not soil the finest linen. It will not dye the skin. It is free from the disagreeable smell of sulphur. It relieves the scalp of dandruff or unpleasant irritation. Prevents the hair from falling off, even after fever. Causes the new hair to grow. It will restore gray hair to its natural color, or the money will be refunded in every instance. As this preparation is comparatively new in this country, the proprietors present the testimonials of well known persons as to its excellence. Directions in French and English.

The Daily Commercial

MAKE HOME PLEASANT.

More than building showy mansions—
More than dress or fine array—
More than dome of lofty steeples—
More than station, power, sway;
Make your homes both neat and tasteful,
Bright and pleasant, always fair,
Where each heart shall rest contented,
Grateful for each beauty there.

More than lofty, swelling titles—
More than fashion's luring glare—
More than Mammon's gilded honors—
More than thought can well compare;
See that home is made attractive,
By surroundings pure and bright,
Trees arranged with taste and order,
Flowers with all their sweet delight.

Seek to make your homes most lovely,
Let it be a smiling spot,
Where in sweet contentment resting,
Care and sorrow are forgot;
Where the flowers and trees are waving,
Birds will sing their sweetest song,
Where the purest thoughts will linger,
Confidence and love belong.

Make your home a little Eden,
Imitate her smiling bowers—
Let a neat and simple cottage
Stand among bright trees and flowers,
There what fragrance and what brightness,
Where each blooming rose display!
Here a simple, vine-clad arbor
Brightens through each Summer day.

There each heart will rest contented,
Seldom wishing e'er to roam,
Or, if roaming, still will cherish
Mem'ries of that pleasant home;
Such a home makes man the better,
Sweet and lasting its control—
Home, with pure and bright surroundings,
Leaves an impress on the soul.

RED RIVER.

Interesting Historical Statements.

At a recent meeting of the N. Y. Historical Society Col. James F. Milner read a paper on the Explorations of the sources of the Red River. The speaker said there were not less than five considerable streams in North-America, each of which bore the name of Red River. None of these were less than 500 miles in length. How many smaller streams bear that same title, it is impossible to determine. The one to which he wished to direct attention is the Red River of Louisana, having its origin in the Cordilleras of New Mexico and flowing into the Mississippi. It is a curious circumstance that although the existence of this grand river, lying almost in the heart of North America, has been known to Europeans more than three centuries, it is only within a few years that its true source has been definitely known. The first absolute attempt to determine this point was made about 100 years ago, when a combined military and scientific expedition was fitted out by the French authorities of Louisana, and sent with instructions to follow up the course of the river to its source. What an utterly inadequate idea the projectors of that expedition had of the task which they proposed is shown by the fact that this expedition was supplied with stores for a trip of 900, or, at most, 500 miles in length. The length of the Red River, as shown by subsequent explorations, is from its mouth to the present town of Preston, in Texas, 1,600 miles, or 2,100 miles for the main stream. This expedition, after experiencing various hindrances, being opposed by hostile Indians, and perplexed by the intricacies of the great raft, beyond which they finally penetrated with difficulty, was at last compelled to abandon the object of their search and return to the settlements. Another expedition, sent out to reach the head waters of the river by the overland journey from the Missouri, mistook the stream of the Northern Red, or Canadian River, for the one of which they were in search, and followed it to its junction with the Arkansas. Soon after this last the ownership of the territory of Louisana passed into the hands of the United States. The lecturer gave a highly interesting sketch of some curious circumstances attending the cession of this territory by France. Shortly after our Government had somewhat unexpectedly obtained control of an almost totally unexplored territory, it set about endeavoring to become acquainted with its new possession. Expeditions were dispatched to explore in various directions. Among others, a party was sent with directions to follow the course of the Red River to the mountains, but, meantime, the Spanish authorities in Mexico had become alarmed at the intelligence of these various movements, and they dispatched an armed force, which compelled this party to return. At the same time an overland movement had been planned from the head-waters of the Missouri to reach the head-waters of the Red River, and followed its course to its mouth. This expedition, commanded by Lieut. Pike, after enduring almost incredible hardships, were also met by the Spaniards and forced to abandon their purpose. In 1819 Major Long started with a party in a small steamer from Pittsburgh, proceeded to the Upper Missouri, and thence overland until he reached as he supposed, the Upper Red River, but after following its course for nearly 800 miles, he found it to be the Northern Red or Canadian. Thus, in spite of all the efforts that were made extending through nearly a hundred years, the source of the Red River remained a mystery. At last, in 1852, Capt. Marcy of the U. S. Army succeeded in veryfying by actual surveys what had in the meantime become pretty well known, through reports of trappers and Indians, as to the real sources of the mysterious river.

Hebrew Exemption from Cholera.

A report of the London Board of Health, drawn up for a committee of the House of Commons, is filled with strange and interesting statistics concerning that mysterious disease. One incident recorded in its pages we will venture to draw the attention of our readers. When the cholera was raging in London some twelve months ago, it was frequently remarked in the newspapers that the Jews were, strangely enough, exempt from the disease. These reports were considered as idle rumors, and frequently contradicted; it now appears that out of a population of 20,000 chosen people, besides 2,000 Portuguese, only thirteen cases of cholera occurred, and the same immunity was observable during the epidemic of 1832. These people, too, it must be observed, inhabit for the most part the foulest and most unhealthy portion of the metropolis.

How is such a fortunate exemption to be accounted for? It has never been supposed, we believe, that any very superior morality on the part of the Hebrews entitled them to special favors; nor as a class have they generally been exempt from a full share of suffering and persecution. The causes are simple enough when explained as they are by the Board of Health, and the facts they disclose convey an impressive and useful moral. The lower classes of Jews, however poor they may be, never crowd more than one family into the same room, whereas, among the lower order of other communities—especially Irish, several families "living together" in one apartment. Again the Jews, as a class, are not given to the abuse of intoxicating liquors. One of the commissioners inquiry says, "I have had during the last twenty years, much intercourse with the Jews, and I cannot recall to mind a single instance of drunkenness in any family I have visited. In virtue of their religion, they are particular in their food. All shell fish is avoided, and the meat exposed for sale is inspected by an officer appointed for the purpose; and if any disease is found, it is condemned. Sabbath rest is, for the most part, strictly observed. The Jews are able, from religious motives, to enter the workhouse, and the poor, being comparatively few in number, are relieved by the more wealthy of their own persuasion. Relieving officers into distress, which being relieved, expense destitution is avoided. The passover enjoins every Jew to have his house thoroughly cleansed annually, and the rooms of the lower classes are annually lime-washed. There is an instructive lesson here for those who will take ...

The British Captives in Abyssinia.

The condition of the British captives in Abyssinia is graphically described by the Rev. H ..., in a letter dated Magdala, Sept. 11. He ...

Stirring tales of contests, pillage, triumphs, defeats have diffused among the inhabitants of the hills and valleys, mountains and plains, a ... of warlike feeling up to this very rock, where every cowardly ruffian babbles and chatters as if he were the champion of Abyssinia and the prop of the convulsed realm. We have ... ocular demonstration of the wonderful courage and prowess of the brave guards over us. On one occasion, about a fortnight ago, the fortress was in a great excitement at the news that a force was coming to invade us; all the soldiers were ordered to arms, and, trembling, seized up their rusty weapons; and half the garrison sallied forth to prove their courage, went out at the gate and encountered—an old man and her family of children. On another occasion Betwooet Damash, a daring arrakee (ardent spirits) hero, as Mr. Rassam's empty bottles can testify, was sent with a party to drive off the Gallas who had absconded with the King's cattle, which he and his brave soldiers had stolen from the peasants in Dembea and Begemeder. However, after a night's apparent search, they came back without an encounter, and astonished the natives with their swagger and bluster about ... A dozen stout Englishmen with a revolver or two each might subdue the whole garrison here and set us all at liberty. We hear from all directions of the mighty crusades against the enemy of God and man, as the King is delegated by his rebellious subjects. Wagshun, chief of Tigre, Lasta, &c. report ... is marshalling his forces in Lalibela, the sources of the Tacazze: Menilek, the son-in-law of the Negus, and the King of Shoa, on the border of the Wollo Galla country. ... Gualu, the prince of Godjam, is near the southern shores of Lake Tsana. And, lastly, a long harrassed and impoverished Gallas are ... to our Amba. That all this brag and ... all this din and turmoil, will end in smoke is more than probable; and king Theodorus, in every province, district, and village in rebellion against him, will, by the mere sound of his name, maintain his position as a bold depredator, till a higher power terminates the devastating conflict, and restores peace and quiet to this unhappy, torn, and distracted country."

The Crinoline Question.

A Paris letter says: The crinoline question is positively settled: small hoops, only three or four at the bottom, held together by a system of tapes going about the waist, will be worn for many years we predict, with short dresses which, by the way, are in favor only as fatigue dresses, being inadmissible as full toilette, although a variety of fantastic drapery is adapted to them. Long sweeping trains maintain their supremacy for evening toilette. Gold ornaments are in high favor, and those now introduced are very well made that the prejudice against imitations is completely forgotten, and the ... day for the first houses of Paris are decorated with them. Jet trimmings, to the desolation of the church beadles, who have pecks of it to sweep out the church aisles, are still a ... The best and most artistic of graceful feminine adornments of all descriptions are bought up for the American market with avidity. We are told that Madame Natealie Tilman, Mrs. Keene, of New York, have borne off a large cargo of delights to the fair dames and gallant damsels, by whom they will be doubtfully appreciated.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

☞ HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.—Flatulent or Windy Colic—These medicines are especially recommended for relieving the oppression frequently experienced after a hearty meal—in fact, they are the dinner Pills—they assist nature in her digestive process, correct all acid, flatulent or bilious tendencies, and by equalizing the circulation prevent a flow of blood to the head. For upwards of fifty years, they have been the only remedies of millions of people for dyspepsia, biliousness, liver complaints, and all disorders of the stomach and bowels. Sold by all Druggists.

☞ CAUTION.—We call attention to the fact that imitations of our fine ELECTRO-PLATE, consisting of Dinner, Dessert Tea Services, etc., are extensively produced by American manufacturers; also, that there are English imitations in market, both of inferior quality. These goods are offered for sale by many dealers, and are well calculated to deceive. Purchasers can only detect and avoid counterfeits by noting our trade-mark thus:

Trade Mark for Electro-Plate. GORHAM MFG CO. Stamped on base of every article.

Our goods, which can be obtained from all responsible dealers, bear this stamp. They are heavily plated on the finest Albata or Nickel silver, and we guarantee them in every respect superior to the best Sheffield plate. SWORD'S
Self Tempering Steam Power
BRICK MACHINE,
MANUFACTURED BY THE
PITTSBURGH BRICK MACHINE
AND
BRICK MANUFACTURING CO.
This Machine takes the clay direct from the bank, (without the preparation, by soaking, necessary for "soft mud" machines), and tempers it thoroughly, pressing, in steel moulds, brick stiff enough to be packed up eight high in the yard as made. For cutting with the trowel, bearing hard usage, and making a strong, true wall, there are no better brick known. The cost of making them by this machine is from 95 cents to $1 10 per 1,000, according to the rates of wages. This we guarantee. The machine is built entirely of iron and steel; and in the best style for strength and permanent use in working clay. Apply for circulars, giving full information, at the office,

CITY MATTERS.

CONFIRMATION.—The Rt. Rev. M. Domenec, Bishop of the Catholic Diocese of Pittsburgh, will give Confirmation next Wednesday, October 17, in St. Mary's church, Loretto, and on the following day in St. Augustine's church, Cambria county.

BIRMINGHAM ENGINE HOUSE.—The new engine house being built on Wilkins street, Birmingham, for the use of the Mechanics' Hose Company, of that borough, will soon be completed and ready for occupation.

NEW ROLLING MILL.—The old Nut Factory of Messrs. James Wood & Co., located on the bank of the Monongahela river, in South Pittsburgh, has been torn down and a new Nut factory and Rolling Mill combined is being built in its place.

APPROACHING COMPLETION.—The brick work on the large and magnificent church edifice, being built by the Methodist Episcopal congregation of Lawrenceville, on Butler street, has been finished and the building is rapidly approaching completion.

BEING RAISED.—The track of the Citizens' Passenger Railway on Penn street, between the Central Skating Park and Iron City Park, is being raised to a level, thus doing away with the deep grade at that point.

STREET IMPROVEMENT.—The hill on St. Mary's Avenue, Lawrenceville, has been graded to a level with the street. The work of paving the Avenue will soon commence, and when completed will be a great improvement.

SALE OF REAL ESTATE.—Messrs. Smithson, Palmer & Co., auctioneers, sold the property located at Nos. 81, 83 and 85 Fourth street, yesterday, at public auction, for the sum of twenty-seven thousand dollars. Henry Lloyd, Esq., of the firm of Lloyd & Black, was the purchaser.

BUGGY STOLEN.—Chief of Police Scott received a letter yesterday, notifying him that a buggy had been stolen at Cadiz, Ohio, on the night of the 4th inst., and that a reward of forty dollars has been offered by the owner for its recovery and the arrest of the thief. A description of the buggy can be had at the Mayor's office.

REWARD OFFERED.—Chief of Police Scott has received a communication from the Sheriff of Ripley, New York, authorizing him to pay a reward of five hundred dollars for the arrest of the party who entered the residence of John Siggins, in Ripley, and stole two thousand dollars therefrom. The money stolen consists of four $100 U. S. 7-30 bonds, fifty dollars in silver and the balance in gold coin.

THE BRIDGE SHOOTING CASE.—A hearing was had before Mayor McCarthy yesterday morning in the case of Joseph McMullen and Thos. Hughes, charged with the felonious shooting of James Miller on the Suspension Bridge, some time since. The hearing resulted in the committal to jail of both the defendants, McMullen in default of two thousand dollars bail, and Hughes in default of five hundred dollars bail.

ARREST AT MANSFIELD.—A man named Enxler was arrested on Wednesday afternoon at Mansfield, this county, by officers Fogle and Simmons, on a warrant issued by Justice Speer, of Greensburg, Westmoreland county, charging him with malicious mischief. Enxler is accused of having, some time ago, smashed the windows in the residence of a gentleman in Greensburg, and also threatened to take his life. He was brought to the Birmingham lockup, where he remained until yesterday morning, when he was taken to Greensburg.

THE SEWER ON FIFTH STREET.—The work of constructing the new sewer on Fifth street is progressing rapidly, the sewer being now built some distance below Wood street, and also up to the Postoffice. The workmen, on reaching four feet below the grade of the street, struck some very hard ground, supposed to be the clinkers from the old Pittsburgh Foundry, which stood upon the site where the Custom House now is. After considerable delay and labor, the ground is now broken a sufficient depth for the sewer. The workmen are busily engaged both day and night, and the portion between Smithfield and Wood streets, it is expected, will be completed this week.

Allegheny Councils.

A stated meeting of the Select and Common Councils of Allegheny City, was held last evening.

COMMON COUNCIL.

Members present—Messrs. Cutler, Dunham, Drennan, Dill, Hanna, Horn, Harper, Ingham, Kirkpatrick, Megraw, McNeil, Reed, Smith, Windsor, and President.

The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved.

GRADE OF TAGGART STREET.

Mr. Windsor presented a petition from property holders on Taggart street, in the Second ward, praying for the establishment of the grade of said street. Read and referred to Committee on Streets.

NEW MEMBER ADMITTED.

The President read the credentials of Mr. Louis Moul, who had been elected a member of Common Council from the Fourth ward, to fill the unexpired term of E. F. A. Faulhaber, resigned. The credentials were accepted, when the oath of office was administered to the member elect, and he took his seat.

RESOLUTION OF THANKS.

The chairman presented a communication from the members of the Board of Control of the Public Schools of the city, thanking Councils for the use of their chamber for holding the meetings of the Board. The communication was received and filed.

PROTEST AGAINST IMPROVING THE COMMON GROUND.

The President also read a communication, signed by Messrs. M. McGonnigle, David Dehaven, C. Moore, H. M. Dunlap, S. W. McGinnis, James Ray, James B. Herron, J. H. Jenks and others, inlot holders, remonstrating against the proposed improvement of the Common Grounds, "as it would divest all the inlot owners of their right of Common, and under the color of law improve the same as a Park, and by inclosing the Grounds, divert the Common entirely from the original use and intention of the Legislature; when the right of Common was granted it was to be a range for cattle." The remonstrance further states that its signers claim their right of Common, and deny that the Legislature has any right to annul a solemn contract and divest the inlot holders of the right of Common without their consent, as the right was granted by the State for the express purpose of enhancing the value of the property offered for sale. The communication was accepted and ordered to be filed.

ELECTION BILL PASSED.

Mr. Smith offered a resolution instructing the Controller to certify a warrant, on the Treasurer for twenty dollars, in payment for the expenses incurred in holding the special election in the Third ward, to fill the vacancy in the Select Council occasioned by the resignation of Mr. Conrad C. Smith. The resolution was read three times and adopted.

IMPROVING FRIENDSHIP ENGINE HOUSE.

Mr. Dunham moved that the Committee on Engines be instructed to place the necessary repairs on the Friendship Engine House, at a cost not to exceed two hundred and fifty dollars. Referred to Committee on Engines.

PASSENGER RAILWAY EXTENSION.

Mr. Hanna presented an ordinance granting the Pittsburgh, Allegheny and Manchester Passenger Railway Company the privilege to construct and run their railway along Ohio Avenue, from Bidwell street to Allegheny Avenue, and along Allegheny Avenue to Western Avenue. Read and referred to Committee on Railroads and Surveys.

PUBLIC GAS LAMPS.

Mr. Cutler offered a resolution instructing the night police not to extinguish the street lamps until daylight, which was read three times and adopted.

Mr. Ingham also offered a resolution instructing the Committee on Police to take measures to keep the public lamp in the tunnel under the railroad track, on Webster street, in the First ward, lit every night. The resolution was read three times and adopted.

A FLAGMAN NEEDED.

Mr. Voeghtley presented a resolution instructing the managers of the Western Pennsylvania Railroad Company to place a flag man at the intersection of said road with Sycamore street, in the Fourth ward. Read three times and adopted.

LAYING OF WATER PIPE.

Mr. Smith presented a resolution providing for the laying of a water pipe on First street, from the present terminus of the water pipe on said street, to Cedar avenue. Adopted.

THE COMMON GROUNDS AGAIN.

Mr. Dill presented a resolution instructing the Commissioners of Common Ground improvement to postpone all further expenditure of money until the inlot holders are divested of all title to said Common Grounds.

Mr. Smith said that the Commissioners had been appointed by the Legislature, and were not within the jurisdiction of Councils. The only way in which they could be reached was by having an injunction placed upon them.

The vote was then taken on the resolution, when it was lost, after which Council adjourned.

SELECT BRANCH.

Members present: Messrs. Brown, Danner, Drum, Gang, Hall, Irwin, Motherel, Myler, McCormick, Pace, Patterson, A., Smith, A. D., Thomas, and President McBrier.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

PETITIONS.

Mr. Drum presented a petition from the citizens on Balaam street asking for the laying of water pipe on said street. Referred to Water Committee.

Also, a petition from citizens on Ridge street. Referred to Water Committee.

Also, a petition from a number of citizens asking for the opening of Craig street. Referred to the Committee on Streets in connection with City Solicitor.

Mr. Myler offered a petition from the Keystone Skating Park Association asking permission to erect a frame building on Robinson street, accompanied by a resolution granting the privilege asked in the petition. Petition received and resolution adopted.

The credentials of Casper Gang, member elect from the Third ward, vice C. C. Smith resigned, were read and that gentleman being present, the oath of office was administered by Mayor Morrison, and the gentleman took his seat.

Mr. Gang presented a petition from the citizens of the Third ward, asking that a fire plug be placed midway between North Avenue and the old city line. Referred to the Water Committee.

REPORTS.

Mr. Brown presented the report of the Committee on Water, which was accompanied by a resolution authorizing the laying of water pipe on various streets. Report received and resolution adopted.

Mr. A. D. Smith presented the report of the Committee on Finance, which set forth the fact that the Int. & Improvement bonds could not be disposed of at a reasonable price, and recommended a temporary loan. The report was accompanied by a resolution authorizing the Committee to negotiate a loan to the amount of $10,500 to pay the balance of contracts for improving the wharf. Report accepted and resolution adopted.

Mr. Myler presented the report of the Street Committee, recommending the placing of flag stone crossings at various places in the Third ward, and authorizing the payment of $325 out of the wharf improvement fund, to the contractors who graded Franklin street, for placing the dirt removed from said street to the wharf and accompanied by resolutions authorizing the same. The report was received.

The resolutions were taken up seriatim, and a vote being taken were both lost.

Mr. A. D. Smith presented the report of the City Controller, of which the following is a recapitulation:

No.	3. Engines and Firemen	$ 219 98
No.	4. Printing	84 12
No.	5. Streets and Bridges	2,497 00
No.	8. Contingent Fund	572 64
No.	11. Water Works	17,540 96
No.	16. Wharf Improvement	962 85
Total		$21,727 55
Paid Police Salaries for September		1,592 75
Paid Firemen		750 00
Paid City Officers, on account		1,155 82
Paid Supt. of Sewer salary		125 00
Paid Mrs. Greniger weekly allowance		20 00
Total		$ 25,521 12
Previously reported		168,773 10
Total to October 1st		$194,294 22

The report sets forth that appropriations No. 4 and No. 8 have been exhausted, and that there is $45 79 remaining to the credit of No. 8. He respectfully asked authority to transfer from the contingent fund the sum of $3 880 00 and place to the credit of No. 8 $3,338 21; and $541 79 to No. 4. Report accepted and the recommendations to transfer adopted.

Mr. Wylie read a communication from the recording regulator, setting forth that two of the parties who have been appointed to assess benefits for the Canal sewer were unable to act, and asking for the appointment of John E. Parke and A. M. Marshall in their stead. Communication received and appointments made.

Mr. Thomas offered a resolution asking that the name of Lincoln street be changed to Frazier. Adopted.

FIRE ALARM TELEGRAPH.

Mr. Myler read an ordinance to prohibit persons from interfering with the Fire Alarm Telegraph, and making it punishable by a fine of not less than five nor more than one hundred dollars. Read three times and passed.

ANNEXATION OF RESERVE TOWNSHIP.

Mr. McCormick called up a resolution which had been laid over at a previous meeting, authorizing Councils to memorialize the Legislature to repeal the act consolidating that portion of Reserve township with the City of Allegheny, which now composes the Seventh ward, and allow the citizens of that district the privilege of voting on the subject.

Mr. Patterson said that the Allegheny Councils had not brought them into the city, and it was not the proper place for them to operate would be in the Legislature.

Mr. Danner said that he knew they were now a part of the city against their will, and they only asked an opportunity to have a vote on the matter.

Mr. J. C. Patterson said from the recent vote in that district on the question of consolidation there was a decided majority in favor of it. That the affair was a family quarrel between the citizens of that district, and he was not in favor of interfering with it.

After some further debate, a vote was taken when

BASE BALL.

Match Game Between the Democratic and Republican Clubs of Allegheny County—The Republicans Victorious.

An exciting return game of Base Ball was played between the picked nines of the Democratic and Republican Clubs of Allegheny county, for the county championship, came off on the Union voting grounds, Tuesday, October 8th. The contest was exciting, and both clubs played remarkably well. The Republicans selected as their pitcher Henry W. Williams, formerly a member of the first nine of Allegheny county, who was also found to be excellent on "home runs." The Democrats, in the hopes of winning an easy victory, secured the services of George Sharswood, of Philadelphia, who was educated in a style of pitching somewhat peculiar and better adapted to the State of South Carolina. It is also said to be popular in the city where he resides. He would be quite likely to win in the city of Charleston, S. C., and it is thought would like to have the Eastern Club of which he is a member send him South to play a match game for a purse of "paper money."

The catchers, Errett for the Republicans, and Barr for the Democrats did their duty. Barr hopped about nimbly, and made desperate efforts to catch ball-ots, but found himself overmatched.

The Democrats were in excellent training, and played desperately but lost heavily on wild throws and missed fly catches.

The following is the score as far as it has been figured up:

REPUBLICANS.	O.	R.	DEMOCRATS.	O.	R.
Williams, p	0	14,855	Sharswood, p	5,876	8,979
Errett, c	0	12,351	Barr, c	5,440	6,981
Wilson, 1st b	0	11,886	Hopkins, 1st b	5,847	5,831

THE ALLEGHENY CHALLENGES THE ENTERPRISE.

The Allegheny Base Ball Club, of this city, have challenged the Enterprise Club to play either one or a series of games for the championship of Western Pennsylvania. The Allegheny club proposes that the first game shall be played on next Wednesday. They have now the strongest nine which they have ever had in the field, and if accepted they expect to give their opponents a close contest. The Enterprise have not yet accepted the challenge, but it is supposed they will.

Police Intelligence.

[Before Burgess Salisbury, of Birmingham.]

FIGHT OVER THE ELECTION.

Frederick Dunwell appeared yesterday and made an information against a man whose name is unknown, charging him with assault and battery. The parties, it appears, met in Mrs. Ertzman's tavern, on Carson street, Birmingham, yesterday morning, when a dispute arose between them in regard to the late election, which resulted in the defendant, it is alleged, striking the prosecutor a severe blow in the face with his fist. A warrant has been issued for the arrest of the accused.

DISORDERLY CONDUCT.

Maria Hanna lodged complaint against John Rodenbaugh and wife, for disorderly conduct. The parties are neighbors, and the defendants, it is alleged, have been in the habit of quarreling and fighting, disturbing the peace of the whole neighborhood. John was arrested, but his wife is not yet in custody.

[Before Justice Lipp, of Birmingham.]

ALLEGED ATTEMPTED OUTRAGE.

A young woman named Miss Gertrude Och, keeper of a saloon on Washington street, Birmingham, brought suit yesterday against officer G. F. Fogle, constable of Birmingham, charging him with assault and battery, and with attempt to outrage her. The prosecutrix states that on the night of the 1st inst., a number of men assembled at her tavern, among them the defendant. When the hour for closing came, all the men left the house with the exception of Fogle, who, it is alleged, stayed in the room, locked the door to prevent Miss Och from getting out of the room, and then attempted to outrage her person. The accused was arrested and held in five hundred dollars' bail for trial at court.

[Before Justice Ammon, of East Birmingham.]

SURETY OF THE PEACE.

Maurice Kapp was arrested yesterday by officer McCully, charged with surety of the peace, on oath of his uncle, Carl Kapp, who alleges that he threatened to do him bodily injury. The case was settled.

[Before Mayor McCarthy.]

CHARGED WITH LARCENY.

A young man named John Beyer was arrested yesterday by officer Moon and Dressier, charged with stealing a quantity of rope belonging to Mr. Bole, of Point street. He was committed to the lock-up for a hearing.

THE CO-OPERATIVE FOUNDRY.—The property purchased by the Co-operative Association of Pittsburgh was taken formal possession of on Wednesday afternoon, and ground was immediately broken for the site of the building, which will be pushed forward without delay. It is expected that the foundry will be in full blast by the first of December. The ground is beautifully situated, on the line of the Allegheny Valley Railroad, just beyond the city limits, and is considered one of the most eligible sites in this vicinity for manufacturing purposes. The building will be as follows: For moulding room, cleaning room and office, thirty by one hundred and twenty feet, two stories high. The moulding room will be one hundred by one hundred and twenty feet, with a five-foot gangway running the center.

GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS in rare assortment, embracing the most desirable fabrics for fall and winter wear ever offered and at low prices, at H. Oppenheimer & Co's, Merchant Tailoring Emporium, No. 83 Wood street.

To all Christians of Whatever Denomination or Color.

The undersigned, Pastor of the Congregation known as Brown's Chapel, A. M. E. Church, of Allegheny, takes the present time to announce to the public of the two cities and boroughs, that the basement of the new African Methodist church, situated on the corner Hemlock and Boyle streets, will be opened next Lord's Day, October 13th, for Divine worship. Religious services will take place at 10 A. M., and 3 and 7 o'clock P. M.

The church is under very heavy liabilities, and we beg that all generous people will visit our church next Sabbath, and leave a liberal donation with either of the following persons, who will stand at small tables in the vestibule, viz: Robert T. Davis, Geo. W. Dimey, Thomas Moore, and Thomas R. Roach.

We also urge our agents to renewed exertions among the generous public.

Invisible Poisons.

The Medicis and the Borgias fortified their system with powerful antidotes against the subtle poisons with which they used to destroy their enemies, and which they feared might one day be employed against themselves. There are invisible poisons, almost as deadly, against which few of us think of taking any precautions. These banes are in the air. When the atmosphere is surcharged with them, as it sometimes is at this season, epidemic fevers ensue. The summer which has just closed has been a most remarkable one. The amount of rain that has fallen has been enormous, and the exhalations from the soil have been, and are, dense and copious almost beyond example. These exhalations exercise a pernicious influence on the vital powers, and predispose the system to disease. Everywhere people are complaining of unusual debility, lassitude and depression. The symptoms are generally forerunners of an epidemic. Combat them early—before they lapse into something worse—with HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, the most effective antidote to malaria that the vegetable kingdom has ever yielded. Its operation is three-fold—invigorating, depurative and antibilious. Free from any ingredient that is in the slightest degree deleterious to health, and containing the juices and extracts of the rarest medicinal herbs, it is immeasurably superior, as a defensive preparation, to any other tonic, herbal or mineral, at present used in medical practice. A course of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS is, humanly speaking, a perfect safeguard against intermittent and remittent fevers.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

THURSDAY EVENING, October 10, 1867.

We cannot see that the local money market has relaxed any of the close features which have characterized its condition for the past fortnight. Borrowers are numerous, but lenders are exceedingly cautious and not very anxious to operate, and it requires paper of the most unquestionable character to pass.

—Local stocks are offered more freely this week, but at prices in most cases far above the views of purchasers. A great deal of Allegheny National Bank stock has lately changed hands. It is by all odds the cheapest local bank stock in the market, and is regarded by many as a good purchase at present rates. Exchange was offered to-day at 65¾, but no takers. The announcement of a dividend by the Columbia Oil Company causes no movement in the stock. It has been dormant for the greater portion of the present year.

—The market for Governments to-day was excited and weak. It was expected that any reverse to the Republican ticket would have a depressing effect on the prices, and cause a heavy decline. The Philadelphia Ledger says: The foreign market for our loans is watched with much solicitude, now that it is known that speeches made by prominent men here are being used throughout Europe by speculators and parties hostile to the credit of the United States, and with some effect. United States bonds have fallen very considerably, mainly through these influences, within the last few weeks. Even an absurd rumor has found its way to Europe, and has gained credence, that the November interest due on our bonds is to be paid by the Secretary of the Treasury in greenbacks, instead of in gold. Pernicious as these speeches are here at home, they are infinitely worse abroad, and will grow more detrimental the longer our public men are countenanced in making them.

—The quotations to Messrs. Ira B. McVay & Co., give the closing prices in the New York market to-day, which are as follows:

—The Herald of yesterday contains the following remarks on the railway stock market: The stock market has been in a state of effervescence all day, and Erie has been the cynosure of all eyes. The annual election of the board of directors took place at noon, and the speculative director, poor old Dan, drew a blank. His name was left out of the majority ticket by the so-called Boston party that won the day, and finding that he could not help himself, he gracefully voted to elect his rivals. With the exception of one or two of the half dozen of the old directors who are retained in the new board there are no strong names to be found on the list. The speculative director and his pack of cormorants have given place to a batch of nobodies who have elected themselves by a stockjobbing operation, and who will certainly benefit themselves more than the Erie Railway Company by their connection with it, for several of them were decidedly calculated to throw discredit upon the company, and the stock of the Erie Railway is likely to continue as it has been, the shuttlecock of Wall street; for what can be expected from speculators but speculation and mismanagement, to suit their own corrupt ends? It was rumored on the street late in the afternoon that one of the ten directors has resigned to make way for Mr. Drew, and that this gentleman had been elected in his place, but there was nothing to confirm it. The successful Boston party includes the managers of the Boston, Hartford and Erie Railway, which has thus far been completed only from Boston to Hartford, but its proposed terminus is to be Fishkill Landing, where, by means of ferryboats to run across the river to Newburg, it is to connect with the Erie. This impecunious company will now hang like a parasite on the Erie and make it very useful as well by the latter guaranteeing its bonds to be issued for the construction of the road from Hartford to Newburg as otherwise. These manipulators of Erie talk of putting the stock much higher; but, whether they do or not, no prudent man would buy it at its present price, although in time to come, when the road is well managed, it will be worth far more for investment. New York Central is, however, still higher in proportion, and for six per cent. stock to be selling at 114, while ten per cent. stocks are far below it, and Cleveland and Pittsburgh, which claims to be a ten per cent. security, is only 82, is ridiculous. It is said that a certain would-be railway monopolist aspires to control it, and that he and his friends hold a large amount of the stock; but it is against the public interests that any one person should constitute himself a railway king and charge whatever rates of fare and freight he pleases.

—The prices of grain and flour hold up surprisingly, notwithstanding the reports show that the quantity of grain received at the lake ports for the month of September was about double that of the corresponding period of last year. And to move this excess of produce to the seaboard it is said that New York alone has furnished and sent forward over twenty-three millions of dollars! This latter fact may be true, for we see and feel a great stringency in the money market; but this being admitted, why do we not have the evidence of the abundant receipts at the lake ports in a corresponding reduction in the price of breadstuffs?

PITTSBURGH OIL TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL, FRIDAY, October 11, 1867.

BUSINESS—The market since our last has undergone no particular change. Buyers and sellers were somewhat apart in their views. The operations taken as a whole were small. The rates, however, were about the same as the previous day. The Eastern markets were firm at a slight advance over the previous day. Philadelphia—The quotations were: for prime light straw to white, 35c; standard white, 35c; crude, 22½c, market closing firm. New York—Firm with sales at the following figures: Prime light straw to white, 35c; standard white, 36c; crude 21c ₩ gallon. Oil City—The market was dull, at $4 10 ₩ bbl.

The prospect for a rise is favorable, heavy rains being reported at Olean, Salamanca, Jamestown and Oil City.

CRUDE—The market was firm with a fair inquiry. Buyers were offering 11c for crude pretty freely. Sellers wanted more money. The only sale that came under our notice was 200 bbls Smith's Ferry at 14c on the spot. The advantage of the market was decidedly with holders. The stock on hand, however, is not large.

REFINED OIL—We have nothing new to note in regard to this article. Firmness was the prevailing feature of the Eastern markets. The sales that came under our notice were 1,000 bbls standard white, Philadelphia, October, buyers' option, 36c, and 1,000 bbls do, October, same terms and conditions, at 36¼c; it was offered, for the last three months, at 36c, and for January and February, 1868, at 34c ₩ gallon.

NEW YORK.

From the Commercial List of Wednesday, we learn that crude has been in better demand, and the market has advanced, closing firm at 15c in bulk; sales 850 barrels, 40@47 gravity, in bulk, at 14½@15c; 700 do low gravity at 11½@15c; 500 do 40@47 gravity, in shipping order, 20c; 150 do low gravity, in new packages at 20½c for October; 1000 do 40@45 gravity, 15c, S O, last half; 800 do 40@47 gravity, 15c, last of the month; 1000 do. 15½c after the 22d; and 800 do for November, 16½c, first half. Refined in bond continues in active demand for export, and under the influence of advancing prices abroad, the market has advanced two cents since the date of our last, closing firm at 36c for S W. The latest foreign advices are: Antwerp, October 8—Standard white, 50 francs; and Liverpool, October 7, 1s 7d. The sales for the three days foot up about 30,000 barrels S W, at 34@36c; 3500 do P W, 35c; 14,000 do S W, for October, 36@36½c; 9500 do for November, 36@36½c, B O; and 1000 do 36c. B O balance of the year. Of free we note a sale of 150 barrels S W at 58c. Gasoline is in request, and sales have been made of 2500 barrels at 13@15½c, now held higher.

PENNSYLVANIA CENTRAL STOCK YARDS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL, THURSDAY, October 10, 1867.

CATTLE—The market during the week was well supplied, the number offered exceeding last week 574 head. The increase in the supply produced a decline in prices, and holders appeared anxious to sell. The extreme rates were $2 87@7 50 ₩ cwt. A few head of choice sold at $90 ₩ head. The Eastern exports, since our last, were large. The operations for the past three weeks were as follows:

September 26	2,452	$2 75@7 50
October 3	1,424	3 00@7 25
October 10	1,998	2 87@7 50

SHEEP—The market was dull, and holders had to make concessions in order to effect sales. The extreme prices were $2 00@4 75 ₩ cwt. The advantages of the market were on the side of buyers. The operations of the past three weeks were as follows:

September 26	3,226	$3 15@4 75
October 3	7,807	2 87@4 85
October 10	6,534	2 00@4 75

being a falling off in sales of 1,249 head.

HOGS—The market was dull, with a falling off in the demand and a decline in prices. The extreme rates were $5 60@7 40 ₩ cwt. The falling off in sales were 1,646 head. The operations for the past three weeks were as follows:

September 26	7,034	$6 00@7 80

ALLEGHENY CATTLE MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL, THURSDAY, October 10, 1867.

CATTLE—The market during the week was well supplied—the offerings exceeding last week—some 20 head. So far as relates to prices the market has undergone but few changes. As usual, the largest inquiry was for the better qualities. Inferior and common cattle attracted but little attention and were difficult to dispose of unless concessions were made. The most noticeable feature this week from last was, that common cattle was very dull and lower, while good fat cattle were in fair demand. The various prices were: inferior to prime $2 50@5 00; fair to medium $5 50@6 50; and prime $6 75@7 75 ₩ cwt. The operations for the past three weeks were as follows:

Sept. 26	901	$2 25@7 50
Oct. 3	504	4 00@7 00
Oct. 10	775	2 50@7 75

SHEEP AND LAMBS—The market continued in ample supply, with a falling off in the demand and a slight decline in prices. Among the lots that changed hands were the following:

John Netcher sold 99 head of inferior lambs at an average of $1 ₩ head.

P. Brennan sold 20 head of sheep, medium quality, at $3 25 ₩ head.

Adam Eckert sold 242 head of sheep at $1 50@4 50 ₩ head.

Stakely & Bro. sold in lots 200 head medium quality, at $2 50 ₩ head.

Simmons sold 55 head of Butler county sheep at $1 25 ₩ head, and 194 head at $1 50@2 50 ₩ head.

Vandevert sold 55 head at $2 75 for sheep and $2 50 for lambs.

J. Young sold 30 head of sheep at $1 25@3 00 ₩ head.

HOGS—The demand has improved. The sales were larger and prices better. The extreme rates were $6@8 25 ₩ cwt.

The operations for the past three weeks were as follows:

September 26	125	$6 50@7 00
October 3	130	6 50@8 00
October 10	200	6 50@8 25

PRODUCE AND GENERAL MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL, THURSDAY EVENING, October 10, 1867.

There is very little improvement to notice in trade since our last, but the State elections have no doubt contributed, to a great extent, to the general stagnation now prevailing. There is very little activity manifest in any branch of trade, with the exception of flour, which continues in demand at advancing prices, owing to light receipts of choice brands. Grain, of all kinds, is in light receipt, and, with a fair demand, prices are generally tending upward; Groceries are inactive. Our rivers, with the exception of the Monongahela, continue unnavigable to any kind of craft, and this suspension of two of our principal outlets of commerce is felt severely by all branches of trade. At the present writing there is very little prospect of an early rise.

The receipts of some of the leading articles of produce per river and rail, since our last, were as follows: Flour 500 bbls; apples 523 bbls; cheese 21 bxs; corn 1,992 sacks; barley 1,148 sacks; rye 175 sacks; and oats 407 sacks.

We quote as follows, which are the wholesale store prices, unless otherwise noted:

BUTTER—Market unchanged. Receipts small and hardly adequate to supply the demand. We note sales of 400 ℔s choice roll and several tubs at 40c: 12 tubs packed at 35c, and various packages of inferior at 16@25c ₩ ℔.

EGGS—The general sales were made at 21@22c ₩ dozen.

ASHES—We note sales of soda ash at 5c; refined at 5½c and Pearls at 13c ₩ ℔.

APPLES—Very choice apples command $1 00@5 00 ₩ bbl; but the general run can hardly be quoted above $3 50 ₩ bbl.

CRANBERRIES—Choice is held at $14 00 ₩ bbl. Sales of 9 bbls reported at $13 50 ₩ bbl.

ONIONS—We note sales of 12 bbls at $4 75 ₩ bbl.

POTATOES—Choice Irish potatoes are quoted at 90@95c ₩ bush, and Jersey sweet at $5 00@5 50 ₩ bbl.

BACON—Trade fair but not as active as it has been. We quote shoulders at 14½@15c; Cincinnati S. C. hams 24½@25c; sides 16½@17c; and dried beef 23c ₩ ℔.

MESS PORK—We quote at $25 00 ₩ bbl.

LARD—We quote at 14½@15c ₩ ℔.

LARD OIL—We quote No. 1 at $1 15, and No. 2 at 95c ₩ gal. One firm quotes Cincinnati extra Lard Oil, winter strained, at $1 25 ₩ gal.

HAY—From country wagons choice timothy hay sells at $16@19 ₩ ton.

WHEAT—Receipts very small. The mills are paying $2 40 for choice red winter, and $2 50 for white wheat.

CORN—Scarce and firm at $1 28@1 30 ₩ bush for prime yellow.

BARLEY—There is a fair demand with light offerings at $1 25@1 30 for spring and fall from first hands. Sales also reported of 8 cars at $1 35 ₩ bush.

RYE—Market firm at $1 35@1 40 with but light receipts.

OATS—Receipts small. We quote on the platform at 65@67c, and from store at 68@70c ₩ bush.

FLOUR—Market steadily advancing. Good brands of winter are scarce and higher, and standard spring brands are selling readily at $11 00. Medium grades but little called for. Winter flour is held firm at $12 50 with prospects of a still further advance.

Coffee, Sugar and Rice.

NEW YORK.

The market for Rio coffee continues dull and weak at the reduction noticed on Saturday last. The demand, according to the Commercial List of Wednesday, at present is light, and the business small—say 3,800 bags per Wayfarer, and 2,000 do. per Romulus, on terms we did not learn. 1,420 bags, balance per Grey Eagle, at Baltimore, sold on private terms. For other descriptions, there is a fair demand, without particular change in prices, though the tendency is still in buyers' favor. We notice 7,000 mats Java, lately, and 5,700 do, in Boston, per Rocklet, on terms we did not learn.

Sugar—On Saturday last there was a pretty good business in raw, the sales reaching 1,300 hhds, at somewhat improved prices, but since then the demand has fallen off, and the market for fair to good refining Cuba, which at one time might have been quoted at 11¾@12½c, closed quietly and rather weak, our quotations remaining as before at 11¼@11½c for fair and 12@12½c for good, but the outside figures are now, perhaps, rather extreme. Buyers having become pretty well supplied by recent considerable purchases, are only in the market for their immediate wants, hence the quietude of the past two days. Holders generally, however, on the other hand, remain very firm in their views, but the market is in just that state that no large quantities could either be bought or sold at present valuations. Refined has continued in good demand at the currency of Friday last for all except Soft White, which is a trifle higher; we quote Hard, 16½@16¾c; Soft White, 13½@16½c; Yellow, 14¼@15½c. Messrs. Stuart's prices are 16¾c for Crushed and Ground; 16½c for Granulated; 16¼c for White A, and 15½c for Yellow C. The sales of Raw are 1,702 hhds Cuba at 11 13-16@12½c; 85 Clarified do, 13½@13¾c; 218 Porto Rico 11¾@13¾c; 216 hhds and 74 bbls Martinique, 11½@12½c; 85 hhds Barbadoes, 12½@12¾c; 77 St. Croix, 12½@13¾c; and 562 bxs Havana, 11¾@13¾c, 4 mos. By auction, 57 bbls Porto Rico sold at 13½@13¾c, 4 mos; and 75 do Havana Clarified, 15½c, cash. The stock on Tuesday last was about 41,314 hhds, 60,525 bxs and bskts, 29,862 bags Sugar, and 63 hhds Melado, against 61,110 hhds, 60,128 bxs, 65,159 bags Sugar, and 20 hhds Melado last year, and 35,495 hhds, 30,947 bxs, 51,680 bags Sugar, and 1,049 hhds Melado the year before.

Rice—We notice a rather quiet but steady market for both foreign and domestic. Of Rangoon, the sales reach 2,000 bags, for export, at $3 50@3 56¼, gold, in bond, and a few hundred bags for home use. The trade are now turning their attention to new Carolina, and, from recent arrivals, 187 tcs have been taken, the bulk at $11 00@11 75; a lot of 60 tcs soft and liable to heat was broken up at $10 37½@10 62½, cash.

Iron at New York.

Scotch pig is in good supply, and remains dull about previous rates, says the Commercial List; 100 tons Glengarnock ex steamer and ship, brought $42@42 50; 50 do Langloan, $42, ex ship; Eglinton, in small lots from yard, $42; and Coltness, $44, ex ship. No. 1 American in moderate supply, and No. 2 ex is scarce and wanted, prices on the latter tending upward; 1,000 tons No. 1 Crane, deliverable at Elizabethport, sold on terms we did not learn. The other sales are 500 tons new American rails at $81, delivered here; 1,000 do, at Chattanooga, $80, delivered at Nashville; 100 do No. 1 wrought scrap and 100 do old English rails, on terms we did not learn. Store prices of bar, &c., are steady, and we hear of no invoices sold.

New York Dry Goods Market.

NEW YORK, October 10.—The great feature in the trade to-day is the large offerings by auction of Hampden Ginghams, which sold at a ruinous loss; 500 cases were disposed of at 10¾@13¼c for Northampton; 10½@12½c for Hampden; 11¼@12½c for Hadley Falls; 11@11½c for Beverly; 11¾@12½c for Holyoke, and 11½@11¾c for West Chester, all fancy names, the sale being peremptory. The bidding opened very tame but improved about 15 per cent. towards the close. Another large sale of woolens, the production of Washington mills, attracted a large attendance, but prices went rather low for most goods. At private sale there is not much activity, and many styles of Ginghams are reduced in price, in conformity with the above figures, if we except the best makes, which are steady at 20c for Lancaster, 18½c for Glasgow and 14c for Hartford; Hampden's now job at 12½c. Other styles of cotton are unchanged, but the market is weak.

Cleveland Market.

CLEVELAND, October 10.—Flour firm and steady, with a good trade demand; XX red winter $11 25@11 75; XX amber $12 50@12 75; XXX white $13 25@13 75 for city made; country brands are irregular, firm and in good request. Wheat—there is no receipts; market very firm at a nominal advance of 5c. No. 1 red winter held at $2 68@2 70; No. 2 do do $2 55@2 57; No. 1 Milwaukee spring, car lots from store, $2 25. Corn nominally better; held at $1 14@1 15 for No. 1 mixed from store. Oats 2@3c better; No. 1 State held at 69@70c, with sales at the inside figures. Rye firm; held at $1 40 for No. 1 State and western from store. Barley held at $1 35@1 40 for No. 1 State and Canada. Petroleum market steady and firm, with an upward tendency; standard white in bond held at 29@30c; prime light straw to white 49@50c; light straw 47@48c.

Louisville Market.

LOUISVILLE, October 10.—Sales 66 hhds tobacco at $4 15 for lug; $21 50 for leaf. Superfine flour $8 75; fancy $14 00. Wheat $2 65. Corn—Ear in bulk $1 05. Oats 67@68c. Groceries firm; refined sugars advanced ½c. Cotton 17½c. Mess pork $24 25. Bacon shoulders 14¾@15c; clear sides 19c; hams 24@25c. Lard 14c in tierces. Whisky, in bond, 34c.

Milwaukee Market.

MILWAUKEE, October 10.—Flour dull; city XX $10 00@10 50; country do $9 37@9 62; X $8 75@9 25.

New York Market.

NEW YORK, October 10.—Cotton a shade lower; sales 1,500 bales at 19c for middling uplands. Flour—receipts 28,478 bbls; flour 10@15c lower and less active; sales 8,600 bbls at $9@9 90 for superfine state and western; $10 40@13 85 for extra western; $10 10@14 for R. H. O.; $11@16 50 for St. Louis, closing quiet and steady for spring wheat flour. California quiet; sales 250 sacks and bbls at $11 50@13 50. Sales 250 bbls rye flour at $7@9. Whisky quiet and steady. Receipts of wheat 125,427 bush; wheat 1@2c lower and more doing; sales 84,000 bush at $2 28 for No. 3 spring; $2 32@2 37 for inferior to choice No. 2 spring; $2 40@2 41½ for No. 1 spring; $2 42 for small parcels choice. Rye more active; sales 45,000 bush western, part to arrive, $1 70@1 71. Barley dull and 2@3c lower; sales 126,000 bush at $1 50 for western. Malt dull. Receipts of corn 5,538 bush; corn heavy and 1@2c lower; sales 88,000 bush at $1 39½@1 42 for mixed western in store and afloat, closing at $1 41 afloat. Oats 1@2c lower; sales 200,000 bush western to arrive at 81½c, and 10,000 do in store at 80c. Rice quiet. Coffee quiet. Sugar fairly active; sales 1,000 hhds at 11¼@12½c for Cuba, and 12@12½c for Porto Rico. Molasses quiet. Hops quiet at 40@65c for new and old crop. Petroleum firm at 15½c for crude, and 36c for refined bonded. Pork opened heavy and lower, but closed firmer; sales 3,250 bbls at $23 00@23 25 for mess, closing at $23 00 cash; $23 26 regular; $20 50@21 00 for prime. Beef quiet and steady; sales 80 bbls at previous prices. Beef hams nominal at $30 00. Cut meats dull; sales 120 packages at 12½@13c for shoulders, and 15@17½c for hams. Bacon dull. Lard quiet and heavy; sales 700 bbls at 14@14½c. Butter active and firm at 20@40c for State. Cheese quiet and steady at 10@16c. Freight to Liverpool firmer; 30,000 bush wheat and corn at 9½d.

LATEST—Flour closed quiet and 5@10c lower on medium grades, which are quite plenty. Wheat heavy at $2 33@2 36 for No. 2, and $2 40 for No. 1 spring; the further advance in ocean freights and extreme scarcity of freight room has a depressing effect. Rye quiet at $1 70 for western. Oats dull and heavy at 81c for western. Corn quiet at $1 39@1 41 for good to prime mixed western. Pork quiet and steady; sales 1,000 bbls mess at $23 12@23 25 cash and regular. Beef nominal. Cut meats nominally unchanged. Bacon steady, with a moderate demand. Lard quiet at 14½@14⅝c for fair to prime steam and kettle rendered.

Cincinnati Market.

CINCINNATI, October 10.—Flour dull, but prices are not lower. Wheat dull at $2 65 for No. 1. Corn held at $1 10, but this is 3c above the views of buyers. Oats decline to 60c. Rye steady at $1 50. Barley $1 70@1 80. Cotton dull at 15c for middling. Tobacco firm and in good demand; sales 210 hhds at full rates. Whisky unchanged and firm at 34c in bond. Mess pork is steady, closing at $23 50. Butter firm at 35@40c. Cheese 14½@16c. Sugar firm at 12@15½c. Coffee 23@27c. Linseed oil declined to $1 14. Petroleum firm at 32@36c for refined free. Gold 142 buying, and but little offering.

Albany Cattle Market.

ALBANY, October 10.—The trade in cattle is extremely dull. The decline in prices at New York and Brighton led buyers to look for some reduction, but instead sellers who paid more for stock in Buffalo were asking rather more than last week. The result was the withdrawal of a number of buyers, and sales are unusually light. Good cattle, which continue scarce, brought an advance of ½c. Inferior grades unchanged. Receipts 4,800. Nearly all going to New York will go in first hands. Sheep 4c higher and demand good; receipts 7,600; sales 3,000. Hogs ½c higher; receipts 5,000; sales 4,000 at 6@8c.

New York Cattle Market.

NEW YORK, October 10.—Beeves—The week opened very dull, notwithstanding the falling off in receipts which aggregate thus far 4,900 head. Prices show no change, but there is a feeling of great weakness. Sheep and lambs very dull at 4@5c for sheep, and lambs 6@7c. Swine dull at 5@6¼c for common to prime.

Baltimore Market.

BALTIMORE, October 10.—Flour dull. Wheat steady. Corn steady; white and yellow $1 45@1 50. Oats active and advanced 2@3c; 80c for strictly prime. Rye higher at $1 65@1 75. Provisions quiet and firm and scarce.

Havana Market.

HAVANA, October 8.—Exchange has a downward tendency; United States currency 28@27% discount; gold, long 8½ premium short. Sugar market dull, inactive, and steady. Lard $19 50@20 in tierces, and $19 50 in tins. Potatoes $5 50 ₩ bbl. Bacon $15 00 ₩ quintal.

Philadelphia Market.

PHILADELPHIA, October 10.—Petroleum—Crude, 20c. Flour firm and unchanged. Wheat quiet. Corn advancing; yellow $1 36. Provisions declining; new mess pork $23 25. Bacon declined ¼c.

New Orleans Market.

NEW ORLEANS, October 10.—Cotton—demand general and active; prices irregular; sales 1,250 bales low middling at 17@18c.

RIVER TELEGRAMS.

Louisville.

LOUISVILLE, October 10.—The river is falling, with twenty-eight inches in the canal by the mark.

RIVER NEWS.

THE RIVER AND MATTERS ALONG THE WHARF.—The Monongahela at this place rose six inches during the past twenty four hours. The pools in the Monongahela are all full and running over. This will enable the large sidewheel packets to resume their trips to Brownsville and Geneva.

CAPTAIN GEORGE D. MOORE's new side wheel Parkersburg packet has been named J. N. McCullough, in honor of an enterprising and clever railroad official. This boat is a credit to all concerned in her construction. She will take the place of the Bayard, leaving this place every Monday and Thursday, on the resumption of navigation. Of course, our accomplished friend, Captain D. Moore, will do the honors in the office. There could be no better selection for that department.

CAPT. THOS. RODGERS's new and splendid side wheel steamer Selma, is all ready, and will leave for New Orleans on the first rise of water. This boat has been fitted up in a very superior manner for the Mobile and New Orleans trade. We shall have more to say before the time of her departure. In the meantime if you wish to see a handsome packet, pay the Selma a visit.

IN TOWN.—We had the pleasure of a visit from Mr R. B. Stephenson, the river editor of the Cincinnati Gazette, who visits our city for the first time. The river column of that paper shows industry, tact and talent. May his visit to our city be one of enjoyment.

NOTICE.—There will be a meeting of the Steamboat Captains' Benevolent Association on Friday, the 11th day of October, at ten o'clock A. M., at the rooms of John Flack, Water street. By order of the President.

THE prospect for a rise in the Allegheny is very favorable. Dispatches from Oil City, Olean, Salamanca and Jamestown report heavy rains in those quarters with a prospect of a wet night. A rise about this time would be very beneficial all round.

THE steamer Elizabeth has resumed her trips to Elizabeth, leaving daily at 3 P. M.

THE steamer Action, of the Mail Line, leaves today at 5 P. M. for Brownsville and intermediate ports.

CAPT. CONWAY has received dispatches from the Silver Cloud No. 2, at Memphis, stating that the crew and passengers were all well to that point. This will be good news to persons who have friends on board.

A MEMPHIS dispatch of the 5th says the Patrick, bound from Memphis to Vicksburg, picked up a snag this trip which badly damaged her cabin and caused her to lose both chimneys overboard. Nobody was hurt.

THE Louisville Courier, of yesterday, says:

Capt. Alex. Norton, of the once famous Western World, which was sunk in the Lower Mississippi some years ago by the R. W. Hill, is in the city, in as apparent good health as twenty years ago.

CAIRO.—The following is our port list for the past twenty-four hours: Louisa, Evansville and return; Big Horn, St. Louis to Memphis; T. L. McGill, St. Louis to New Orleans; Graham, Paducah and return; Adam Jacob, St. Louis to Memphis. The river has fallen two inches. Weather clear and cool. Business dull.

PASSING AWAY.—James Fulkerson, clerk of the Bridgeport, died suddenly on board that steamer during her trip up, between New Madrid and Cairo. His remains were taken to St. Louis for interment.

Mr. L. A. Jones, clerk of the steamer Osceola, died September 30th, at the Providence Infirmary, Mobile. Mr. Jones was a native of Rising Sun, Indiana, and has only been South about three months. Mr. Jones was about twenty-five years of age, and leaves a wife and child in Indiana to mourn his loss.

LOUISVILLE, October 8.—There is five feet on Portland bar. Business improving. Steamer Success arrived from Cincinnati, and leaves to-morrow morning for Cairo. The Spray arrived late but went out before dark. The Bermuda is high and dry. The Ida Rees and Tempest are still aground near Shawneetown. The Charleston got off French Island bar. The Mary Erwin is on her way to Cincinnati, having quit the Evansville and Cairo trade.

ST. LOUIS, October 8.—The Underwriter has gone to the Ben Johnson, sunk in nine feet of water at Sonora, Upper Mississippi. Rates to New Orleans, Vicksburg and Natchez for this week are a dollar and ten cents per barrel for flour, and other articles in proportion. The Cornelia has withdrawn from the Memphis trade, having broken a shaft while coming up the river. The May Flower enters the Memphis trade independently. The Octavia, coming from Keokuk, encountered a snag and broke several of her timbers. When repaired she will probably go South.

EVANSVILLE.—The Journal, of Monday, pays the following tribute to the late Captain P. G. O'Reilly:

A deep gloom shrouded the hearts of our citizens on Saturday, by the announcement that Captain P. G. O'Reilly is dead. For many years he had been proprietor of a wharfboat and engaged in the commission business, and was a universal favorite with merchants, shippers and steamboatmen. Warm-hearted and generous to a fault, he made many friends and scarcely an enemy. His heart was always in his hand and the poor and needy never appealed to him in vain. Captain O'Reilly, with John Ross and John Mitchell, built the second Sultana which proved a rather unfortunate speculation. During the late rebellion Captain O'Reilly stood always true to the flag of his adopted country, and made large sacrifices for the cause of the Union. About three years ago he commenced business as a commission merchant in New Orleans, and by energy, industry and integrity, was rapidly building up an extensive and lucrative trade, which enabled him to place his property in an unencumbered condition.

THE GREAT REPUBLIC.—The Mound City Journal has the following:

Work all the Ways is being pushed forward vigorously. The Lee is nearly ready for business, and will put out within a few days. A large force of caulkers and painters are at work on the Great Republic. The former are caulking the main deck of the great steamer. The painting is being done under the direction of Will Jones. The Republic will be in readiness to leave for the lower river by the 15th instant, and she will then present a much better appearance than when she first started from Pittsburgh. The little Quickstep lies upon the ways in complete condition, awaiting the completion of the cradles to be launched. The repairs of the Ways will be finished in two weeks. E. M. Hiner is pilot of the United States Survey Steamer, Northwest, and is now endeavoring to take his boat up the Upper Arkansas. On the 24th ult., the boat was at Little Rock. She had spent considerable time in improving the channel of the White River cut-off. Ed. has but little hopes of getting much further up the Arkansas until

CINCINNATI.—Wednesday's Gazette has the following on the situation:

The weather yesterday continued pleasant. It being election day, business was very dull. The packets, however, went on with good trips. Very little freight offered for lower Ohio.

The river, during Monday night, fell an inch, but yesterday rose an inch. We may predict a slight rise to-day, but it will probably be temporary. The officers of the Argosy report only twenty-six inches for steamboats at Augusta and Quick's Run, although it might measure twenty-eight or thirty inches by the stick. Augusta is the shallowest place hence to Big Sandy, the water being wide spread. The sand is washing out at Manchester, and boats experience no difficulty. The America got aground at Four-Mile, but she was probably out of the channel, and all other boats report plenty of water. Boats departing to-day will find thirty-two inches, at least, at Medoc, the shoalest place hence to Louisville.

The Peerless will have completed her repairs today, and there is a report in circulation that she will load for Memphis.

The Golden Era, lying at Ironton, has her new shaft in place, and when the Argosy passed down her arms were being put in. She will probably be here in time to depart for Pomeroy on Saturday.

The Mary Erwin, which has recently been under charter to Capt. Josh Throop, and plying between Evansville and Cairo, will be here to-morrow evening. It is probable she will take the place of the Argosy in the Big Sandy trade, as the latter is not calculated for towing.

Some thief went through the pockets of Captain J. W. Warren, of the steamer Rightway, as she lay at the wharf Monday night, and feloniously abstracted therefrom three Mexican dollars, which the Captain had preserved for pocket pieces, and which, fortunately, was all the money about his clothes at the time.

Captain J. N. Snowden left for Brownsville, Pa., last evening.

RIVER IMPROVEMENT.—As everything relating to the improvement of the "Father of Waters" is of interest, we publish the following. The first has been published by a Dr. John H. Henty, and may be pronounced as a decidedly grand scheme. He says:

We propose, by government assistance, to unite the waters of the Missouri River with the waters of the Gulf of Mexico, through a new and safe channel, beginning with a canal at Kansas City, on the Missouri River, running to a branch of the Osage, connecting by canal with the Neosho River at the falls, running 250 miles or more to Fort Gibson, on the Arkansas River, then running down the river to Fort Smith, passing around the base of the San Boles Mountain, through a small branch of the Arkansas River, into a branch of Red River by canal, then running down the Red River some distance to a branch of Red River, connecting by canal through Gaines's Creek, with a branch by canal to Sabine River, running three hundred miles into Sabine Bay. The fall of this great Sabine or Neosho canal or Sabine Neosho river will be 2,000 feet, making the river or canal most feasible and practicable. * * * There will hardly be 150 miles of canal; but the great benefit will be in the changing of the courses of these great rivers in high water, so as to save lands in Lower Mississippi and Arkansas from overflow, reclaiming thousands of acres of the best lands of the finest part of our country. The land in Kansas and Indian Territory and Texas, will increase in value millions of dollars, and support a more dense population than can live in the Mississippi bottoms, under the present levee system. The great canal saving all the lands on the Mississippi river and Arkansas and Red rivers, doing away with the levees entirely, and can be completed at a cost of twenty-five millions of dollars, and it will last for all time. The great river or canal running through a country vast in extent, can be completed in three years, at a cost of nine millions of dollars. Creating cut-offs in the river, and straightening the channel of the river cannot prevent the filling of the channel. But making new and opening old cut-outs and changing the course of the volume of the water in the Mississippi, Arkansas and Red rivers, and throwing the large volume of water by the Sabine or Neosho canal, or Sabine Neosho river on the west, into the gulf at Sabine Bay, and on the east throwing the waters of the Yazoo river and the Big Black into Pearl river, thence into the gulf, and the upper waters of the Tennessee through Will's valley to the Coosa river, thence into the Alabama to Mobile Bay, thence into the gulf, is the only way to control the Father of Waters, and render a lasting blessing to mankind. This great river being the outlet of an immense valley, and the great traveling and commercial thoroughfare of this vast country, whatever affects the permanency of its channel or general character as a navigable stream, must excite an interest in the minds of the people of the Union, but more especially those that reside in the immediate valley."
